THURSDAY RECORD BREAKER AT FAIR; BEST EXHIBITS YET; MIDWAY RAIDED BY CIVIC LEAGUE REFORMER

The Rev. Rennets C. Miller Has an Exciting Time With Crowd and Angry Operators of Gambling Devices After He Has Had Their Games Suppressed at Ellenville.

Thursday's record breaking crowd at the Ellenville Fair were unanimous in their praise of the exhibits which were conceded to be better than exhibits at any other previous fair. Particular attention was directed to Ulster county products in the fruit and vegetable tents, and to the Ulster county exhibits of livestock and poultry.

Stock Department.

In the stock department, Frank Brooks of Grahamsville won nearly all the first and second prizes for Ayrshires. Herbert Brooks of Sundown won nearly all the first and second prizes on short horns, Devons, steers and oxen.

The fine exhibit of Jerseys of Yama Farms at Napanoch attracted much attention, but the Farms do not compete for premiums. All prizes on Jerseys were carried off by John George of Eureka.

Ellenville Guernseys took all prizes in that class, the cattle being entered by Walsh & Wintish of that place.

A. W. Hillis & Sons of South Westport, N. Y., who entered four carloads of hogs and sheep, including practically every variety of sheep raised for commercial purposes by New York state farmers, won almost all the prizes for their entries.

Other big exhibitors were Frank Brooks of Grahamsville, who won all the first prizes for Leicestershires, and Herbert Brooks of Sundown, who won practically all prizes for Oxford Browns.

Poultry Winners.

In the poultry department, Ray C. Brown of Hamden, Washington county, won more prizes on bantams than any other exhibitor. He has the largest exhibit of bantams of any man in the United States and has won more prizes for every known variety of bantams than any other poultry raiser in America.

Mrs. W. W. House of Chatham was a good winner on large fowl. For water fowl, most of the first prizes were awarded to the exhibit of William Schouten of Pleasant Valley, N. Y.

Harry Dawson of Walden carried off nearly all prizes for game bantams. Price Moore, owner of "My Own Poultry Farm," was the largest exhibitor of large fowl and water fowl, having three carloads of exhibits, and was the largest winner in those classes.

Fruit Department.

The largest display of fruit was that entered by Mrs. W. P. Masten of Pleasant Valley, who was awarded the prize for the best display.

J. W. Weaver & Son of Highland won first prize for the best display of packed ready for market, and other large winners for fruit were Graham Hurd & Son of Clintondale and A. B. Rice of Spring Glen.

Vegetable Department.

The Rochester Township Fair Association won the prize for the best display of vegetables packed for market and its display of vegetables opened the eyes of many visitors to the results which can be accomplished in this way.

Lorin Krom of Accord won sixty-first premium for potatoes.

Burgess Had Best Display.

The special prize for the best display at the fair was awarded to Valence Burgess, Inc., of this city, whose beautiful floral booth far surpassed any previous exhibit by that firm. Visitors agreed that the Burgess exhibit is one of the features of the fair which is worth while a long journey to see.

Is Target Shooting "Gambling"?

Activity along the midway was interrupted during the afternoon when an agent of the New York Civic League of New York city appeared on the grounds and demanded that most of the attractions along the midway should be closed because they were operating "gambling" games. In this class he included the wheels used in determining winners of chewing gum, fancy dressed dolls, canes, flags and so-called Indian blankets, and also the booths where for 25 cents the visitor had a chance of winning a cigar or doll by hitting a moving target with an air gun or by knocking over a ten pin with fifteen baseballs.

Booths at which prizes were offered only to winners closed down temporarily, but later reopened when they were able to assure every patron of some prize.

Late in the afternoon, one visitor complained that he had lost $60 at one booth where a wheel and numbered balls were used quietly with certain visitors. He refused to make a complaint against the proprietor because he did not want anyone to know he had lost his money, but said he had continued the game until he knew broke because he thought he knew the system and was sure he could win if he played long enough. That was the only complaint during the day.

The Rev. Rennets C. Miller, representing the New York Civic League, who on Wednesday visited the fair and found about thirty of the concessions that he says were "plain, unadolterated gambling," makes the following statement:

"About one-third of them had various gambling wheels, the presence of which is prima facie evidence of gambling. So Wednesday night he served written notice on the fair managers that all the gambling concessions must be closed immediately and offered his services to the fair managers in pointing them out. He reminded the managers in his notice that they were violating the Agricultural laws which says that the state appropriation for their fair, about $4,000, will not be paid if the managers permit gambling. Within an hour after the notice was served on the managers there was big excitement in town. Dr. Miller tried to get the chief of police of Ellenville Wednesday evening to close the wheel gambling devices on the chief business streets, but he said the chief refused to interfere with them.

Thursday afternoon accompanied by the State Police Sergeant at the fair and lawyer Coons of Ellenville, Dr. Miller went through the midway and pointed out the illegal concessions and half of them were promptly closed. Dr. Miller says, "We ought to have closed thirty of them, but I wanted to be half way reasonable. Many devices, which are plainly contrary to our state anti-gambling laws do not seem like gambling to many people, so we let them off easy."

The closed concessions were angry and threatening, some of them surrounded him till quite a mob kept him busy answering questions and facing disagreeable threats and insults. After nearly an hour with the mob he escaped without any serious injury.

Among the many incidents visiting these concessions Wednesday, Dr. Miller says he saw what he is confident was a confederate of one of the gambling concessions who lured a young country boy into losing three dollars in less than five minutes and but for a companion who fairly dragged him away the boy would have lost every dollar he had there.

Farm and Home Bureau Exhibits.

Two exhibits in the main building which attracted more visitors than anything else were the booths of the Ulster County Farm Bureau and the Ulster County Home Bureau.

The Farm Bureau booth was an enlightening exhibit of fruit which had been sprayed and fruit which had not been sprayed, the latter showing the various diseases to which fruit grown along the Hudson river valley is most prevalent. The display included specimens of unsprayed apples from the orchards of A. E. Jansen at New Paltz, and also pears, plums, peaches and quinces.

A map of Ulster county showing how the Ulster County Spray Service is put in practical operation was displayed. It showed the location where the one hundred and eighty-two members of the spray service are located, with red strings leading from such community to a telephone. The map shows how the men were notified by telephone for various sprayings; twenty men were called and they passed word to the members in their neighborhood. The booth among other things also contained exhibits of silage corn gathered in the variety tests which have been conducted in the county for several years. The booth was in charge of Farm Bureau Manager Elwood L. Chase and Mr. Reiner, agent of the Jewish Agricultural Society.

Visitors at the fair were deeply interested in the joint Health Exhibit conducted by the State Department of Health, the Ellenville public health nurse, the Council of Jewish Women and the Ulster County Home Bureau.

The afternoon demonstrations of "Tommy Care" and "Tommy Don't Care" were crowded. "Tommy Care" was acted by Robert Wolf, and "Tommy Don't Care" by Perry Ewing, with the Silverman twins of Ellenville as alternates. The demonstration at the health exhibit was conducted and explained by Miss Lillian M. Stuart, county Home Bureau manager; Miss Bertha Kingsbury, who is supervising nurse of the state department of health for this district; Mrs. Nellie Riist, the Ellenville public health nurse, and Miss Anna Brenner, of the Council of Jewish Women.

A feature much appreciated by visitors was the women's rest tent and toilet room installed jointly by the Home Bureau and Sanitary Supervisor Goodwin of Ellenville.

CENSOR DARKENS WEST VA. DRAMA

Big Battle Rumored at Blair, Where Only Flourishing Local of Miners' Union is Located—Sheriff's Deputies in Hundreds—Miners Camped at Indian Creek.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 26.—All efforts to confirm reports of a gun battle at Blair, said to have been participated in by three hundred deputy sheriffs and a large force of armed miners, have failed early this morning.

Sheriff Don Chafin, whose deputies are said to have been parties to the battle, has established a war-like censorship, and in response to all requests for information simply says, "we are not giving out anything."

Signs of activity were reported at the encampment of miners at Indian Creek, near Racine, in Boone county, early this morning. Watches said that all indications pointed to the probability that the marchers were about to break camp and resume their march to Mingo county.

The camp itself presents an extremely military appearance, were it not for the motley garb of the "army."

Sentinels watched throughout the night and none but those able to satisfy the men on guard were permitted to enter or depart.

The armed miners, who left Marmet, twelve miles east of here early yesterday morning, had been encamped on Lena creek for a week and had gathered with the avowed purpose of marching to Mingo county and ending the reign of martial law enforced by Governor E. F. Morgan.

The censorship established by Sheriff Chafin upon all reports to the outside has thus far prevented establishment of the fact as to whether the battle reported at Blair was fought by a detachment of the camp or the independent body.

Blair, the scene of the reported battle, is a mining town near Boone county line in Logan county. It is almost the only town in that section which has a thriving local of the United Mine Workers of America and C. P. Keeney of District 17, said today that he had received reports from there that members of the union "expected trouble" but that they had prepared for it by digging trenches in the hills for protection.

In view of this statement it is thought likely that the clash there may have been between union miners living at Blair and Sheriff Chafin's deputies.

GOV'T WATCHES W. VA. SITUATION

Harding Loath To Use Troops Until State Has Failed In Effort To Restore Order But Steps Are Taken To Carry Out Bandholtz's Recommendations.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Aug. 26.—Federal intervention in the threatening West Virginia situation today awaits upon a report from Brigadier General H. H. Bandholtz, who was due to arrive in Charleston, W. Va., this morning to make an investigation of conditions on behalf of the president. The entire West Virginia situation is expected to be laid before the cabinet today together with all reports that may be forthcoming from General Bandholtz.

Governor Morgan of West Virginia has painted the situation most seriously and has declared in a telegram requesting Federal intervention that the presence of armed bands in West Virginia approximates "armed insurrection." He charges that the armed bands have pillaged and marauded on their marches and that they constitute a serious menace to the people of the state.

The president, it is understood, is loath to take steps for federal intervention if he finds that the state forces can cope with the situation, but he will act quickly and decisively if reports show the necessity for federal troops.

Awaiting final decision by the president, which may not come until late today or possibly tomorrow, the war department has taken steps for immediate action. Major General George Reed at Fort Benjamin Harrison has reported that he is prepared to dispatch troops to West Virginia on a moment's notice, that transportation has been provided and that the men are equipped and ready to move.

BUNDY FOUND DEAD IN BED

Harvey J. Bundy, 21 years old, of 184 Hurley avenue, was found dead in bed this morning at his home. Evidently in the best of health and spirits he retired Thursday evening early and nothing was heard from him during the night. This morning he was found lifeless with gas escaping from a fixture in the room.

Young Bundy was a silk weaver by trade employed in town where he had resided for the past three years. He was born in Cottickill, a son of Phoebe and North Bundy formerly of West Hurley.

Coroner W. N. Conner was notified and after making an investigation issued a death certificate.

DR. ERZBERGER IS MURDERED

Was One of Foremost Figures in German Politics and None in Germany Was So Well Hated By Kaiser's Friends—Was Signer of Armistice.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Berlin, Aug. 26.—Dr. Matthias Erzberger, former minister of finance and one of the foremost figures in the German political world was murdered here today.

No man in modern times has "fluctuated" in the sentiments of his compatriots as Dr. Matthias Erzberger, for a quarter of a century the "czar" of the German Centrist (Catholic) Party and former finance minister. From the height of popular idolatry he plunged into a position where he was easily the most hated man in Germany.

Once before a would-be assassin's revolver was fired at him; he was wounded and hovered between life and death for some time, after which he turned up again in the Reichstag rotunda and smiling, provoking tumultuous cheers and cries of "Erzberger Luck."

Erzberger was head of the German armistice commission. While the negotiations in 1918 were pending, he embodied the last hopes of a crumbling empire; once he had signed the armistice, almost universal contempt and derision overtook him and he has been ever since the man upon whom all the hatred and all the vilification of the Kaiserist conservatives have been concentrated.

Born in a humble station, the son of a middle class family, Erzberger became a country school teacher and did not dream of entering politics until admirers of his suave personality and nimble wit "put him over" in a provincial election. He rose with lightning like swiftness to an almost despotic position in the empire's politics and was regarded as the shrewdest and most successful politician in central Europe.

CREEK BRIDGE GAP CLOSING

Still Reaching Out From Ends Is Within 135 Feet of Meeting and It Is Expected That Framework Will Be United By Saturday.

With the two ends of the steel framework of the Rondout creek bridge reaching out over the creek to within 135 feet of each other it is expected that when the bridge workers quit work Saturday at noon the two ends will be joined together. Rapid progress is being made by Terry & Tench on the bridge and with the steel framework in place the work of laying the bridge flooring will go ahead rapidly.

The work on the bridge is in charge of Superintendent Spooner and he expects the work to progress without any unnecessary delay. The wreck of the big derrick on West Strand which fell on Thursday has not delayed the work on the bridge for the work was practically completed.

The steel framework is being hoisted into place by traveling cranes. There is a traveler, as the crane is called, on each end of the bridge and the traveler hoists the steel into place. As fast as the framework is placed in position it is hung from the two huge cables with smaller cables known as suspensives.

The flooring of the bridge will also be laid from both ends of the bridge and in this way an equal weight will be brought to bear on both ends of the framework.

Work of riveting the steel framework as fast as it is swung in place had been in progress all week.

DEMOLISHING BUILDINGS

On Newark Lime & Cement Company Property on Strand.

Frank Buntin of Howland avenue is at work with a force of men demolishing some of the old buildings on the property of the Newark Lime & Cement Company on the Strand in Ponchockie. Among the buildings taken down was the old company office. Some of the big brick chimneys will also be taken down by Mr. Buntin. Since the closing down of the cement works and quarries the buildings on the property have not been used, and appeared as though they were ready to fall at any time.

Judge Rosch Coming To Bake.

Judge Joseph Rosch of Liberty has accepted an invitation to attend the annual clambake of the Ulster County Bake Association at Cuneo's Casino, Lake Katrine, on Saturday afternoon. A large attendance of lawyers is expected not only because of the bake itself but also on account of the numerous attractions arranged by the committee in charge of entertainment.

Knapp Not Knoff.

Mrs. Violet Knapp, 95 Gate street, thinks that she must be the "Mrs. Violet Knoff, 95 Enge street," mentioned in The Freeman and other papers as one who will receive a prize in the New York American movie tie contest just closed. There was probably an error in the list sent out for publication.

Ambulance Calls.

Thursday the ambulance removed George Hoyer from No. 21 German street to the Benedictine Hospital. This morning Elizabeth Kivian was removed from 84 Johnston avenue to the Benedictine Hospital.

SINN FEIN GETS QUICK ANSWER

England's Reply to Irish Note Holding Out for Independence is Given to De Valera's Envoy This Afternoon.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

London, Aug. 26.—Premier Lloyd-George's rejoinder to the Sinn Fein note rejecting the English peace offer was dispatched this afternoon.

The communication was received on behalf of the Sinn Fein by Art O'Brien, head of the Irish Self-Determination League and the so-called "Sinn Fein ambassador in London."

The amazing swiftness with which the British cabinet made reply to the Sinn Fein astonished London.

PEACE BRINGS NEW PROBLEMS

Harding Must Now Decide Future of American Army of Occupation and Whether U. S. Shall Voluntarily Accept Any of Versailles Treaty Responsibilities.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Aug. 26.—The United States and Germany having entered into a formal peace treaty, President Harding and his cabinet today are confronted with the problem of new and important decisions.

The treaty of peace with Germany, published here last night, discloses that all of the rights of the United States in the Versailles treaty are protected while this nation is not bound by any of the responsibilities of that pact. It now remains for the president and his advisers to determine whether they wish to accept any of the responsibilities of the Versailles pact.

The outstanding decisions which it appears must soon be made by the president is with regard to the American army of occupation in Germany. These forces have been maintained in Germany under the terms of the armistice entered into on November 11, 1918. The treaty just concluded also concludes that armistice. Under the present treaty the United States may still decide to maintain its forces in Germany under the terms of the Versailles pact, but it not bound to do so. There has been considerable pressure from members of the senate for the recall of these troops and it remains for the president to decide what course shall be taken. The United States holds the right to keep the troops there if it desires, but under the provisions of the treaty, it appears that there is little advantage in keeping the American forces in Germany. Nevertheless in army circles the opinion prevailed today that the American army of occupation would be maintained, although it might be very greatly reduced.

The treaty confirms all concessions made by Germany in the Versailles pact and therefore is a confirmation of the right of the United States to its claims upon the Isle of Yap. Girded by this confirmation from Germany in the Yap concession, the United States is in a position to push its claims that the Pacific island be internationalized, for this nation does not recognize the mandate handed over to Japan by the Supreme Council. What steps in the Yap controversy will follow the signing of the German treaty are still a matter of conjecture.

THINK SUICIDE FRENCH'S AGENT

Body of A. E. Roberts Found in Lake—Arrest of Alleged Financial Juggler's Wife and Two Californians Looked For.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Chicago, Aug. 26.—Arrest of two business men in Los Angeles and a woman in San Diego, California, was expected today as a result of investigations being made by Federal officials into the alleged fraudulent deals of Charles W. French, "Honest John" Worthington and their associates. Investigation also was being made of the circumstances that led to the suicide in Minneapolis of A. E. Roberts, believed to have been one of French's agents.

One of the men whose arrest has been asked of Los Angeles authorities is Colonel George C. Ball. He is said to have had dealings with the French-Worthington band for a period of five years. His name appears scores of times in documents seized from French and Worthington. The name of the second Los Angeles man has not been disclosed. The woman whose apprehension is desired, is Mrs. Charles W. French, wife of the self-styled financial wizard. She has been living on a ranch near San Diego and Federal officials believe she has important knowledge of her husband's activities.

Several days ago Roberts is said to have wired Rudolph E. Kohn, an alleged Chicago member of the band, asking for $5,000. Kohn was under arrest and did not reply. Roberts's body was found in Lake Harriet at Minneapolis late yesterday.

SINN FEIN WILLING TO NEGOTIATE FREEDOM; DE VALERA RE-ELECTED

Dail's Unanimous Rejection Leaves Chance For Peace Commission—Irish "President" and "Cabinet" Praised at Session of Parliament Where They are Chosen to Continue Leadership.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

London, Aug. 26.—While Dail Eireann (the Sinn Fein parliament), has rejected Premier Lloyd-George's peace proposals, the Irish republicans are willing to continue negotiations through a peace commission, it was revealed today when the text of Eamonn de Valera's reply was published.

"Dail Eireann, by unanimous vote, has rejected the proposals of your government," said the document.

"I cannot believe," continued de Valera's message, "that your government intended to commit itself to the principle of sheer militarism which is destructive to international morality and fatal to the world's peace."

"If small nations have their right to independence forfeited when more powerful neighbors covet their territory for military advantages there is an end to liberty and no longer can any small nation claim the right to separate, sovereign existence."

"However, if on a broad basis peace can be secured we are willing to appoint negotiators."

"Holland and Denmark can be made subservient to Germany. Belgium could be made subservient to Germany or France. Portugal could be over-awed by Spain and so on. To speak of Ireland seceding from a partnership she has never accepted and from an allegiance she has never undertaken to render is fundamentally false just as the claim that we must subordinate our independence to the interests of Britain strategy is fundamentally unjust."

"If the refusal to betray our nation's honor be made an issue for war with Great Britain we should deplore it. We are conscious of responsibilities towards the living just as we are mindful of obligations to our heroic dead. We never sought and we do not seek war but if war is made upon us we must defend ourselves."

"I shall remain confident that whether our defense is successful or unsuccessful nobody—not a representative Irishman or Irishwoman will ever propose that the nation surrender its birthright."

"We long for the end of the conflict. If your government is determined to impose its will by force and antecedent negotiations and insists upon conditions involving the whole of our national position it would make the negotiations a mockery and the responsibility for the conflict then would rest with you."

Dublin, Aug. 26.—Eamonn de Valera was today unanimously re-elected president of the Irish republic by Dail Eireann (the Sinn Fein parliament). He was nominated by Com. mandant John MacKeown, of the Irish republican army, a member of Dail Eireann.

"No Irish leader has ever equalled de Valera," said MacKeown in his nominating speech. "He met the English as a soldier and beat them. He is now meeting them as a statesman and will beat them there. He has done more for Irish freedom than all the previous leaders."

"We mean to stand up on our present position," said de Valera addressing the parliament. "We will not quit it because it is fundamentally right."

All the members of the Sinn Fein cabinet were re-elected. Michael Collins, commander in chief of the Irish republican army, moved that the republican government doat new loans of $20,000,000 in the United States and $2,000,000 in Ireland.

"All the arrangements for making the loan in the United States have been completed," said Collins. "All that is needed is the formal word to go ahead."

Dublin, Aug. 26.—Attracted by the promise of a speech from Eamonn de Valera outlining the Sinn Fein's next peace move, thousands of persons gathered at Mansion House today for the third public session of Dail Eireann.

All the seats were occupied and all the standing room taken long before time for the opening. A detachment of the Irish republican army kept order and regulated the long lines of people who stood outside for more than an hour before the doors were thrown open.

Five thousand persons were turned away from the already overcrowded legislative chamber. A large portion of the audience was composed of women and still other thousands of the spectators gallery stood outside with disappointment written on their faces.

Among the women spectators was Mrs. Despard, a sister of Lord French, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Mrs. Despard is a Sinn Fein sympathizer despite the hostility of the republicans towards her brother.

Eamonn de Valera was wildly cheered by men and women alike when he entered the room.

Among the Americans present were Frank P. Walsh, of New York and Kansas City and Harry Boland, of New York. Mr. Walsh had been visiting friends in the country, but motored into Dublin for the meeting.

London, Aug. 26.—The British cabinet was summoned to meet today to consider the Sinn Fein's communication rejecting the English peace offer. While the Irish answer is understood to be blunt in tone, government officials were hopeful that the negotiations will be continued.

One optimistic feature was the report from Dublin that the letter avoids any reference to the previous demand for an Irish republic.

"Eamonn de Valera rejects the English proposals, but wishes to continue the negotiations," said the parliamentary correspondent of the Daily Chronicle. "His letter is by no means satisfactory."

The British viceroy of Ireland, Lord Fitzalan was summoned to London to confer with Premier Lloyd-George and Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, who had been in London since the Sinn Fein's communication.

De Valera said he had interpreted Premier Lloyd-George's letter of July 13 as meaning that the Sinn Fein was asked to accept the principle that the geographical propinquity of England and Ireland imposed upon Ireland subordination to the precedence of Great Britain's strategic interests.

Lord Fitzalan called upon Premier Lloyd-George just before the cabinet met.

It is learned from an authoritative source that there is a strong section in England demanding that the British rejoinder to de Valera's communication be in the form of an ultimatum fixing a time limit for acceptance of the principle of the English peace offer by the Sinn Fein.

BOYS HELD FOR THE GRAND JURY

After a hearing in police court this morning before Judge Schrick the two boys who were caught with the Ford car of former Police Commissioner W. D. Cashin, which had been stolen from Mr. Cashin's garage on Jansen avenue, were held for the grand jury. The boys were Frank Schermerhorn, who was represented by Attorney John M. Cashin, and Joseph Berryann, who was represented by Attorney F. C. Merritt. Bail was fixed at $1,000 each.

He immediately notified police headquarters giving the license number and a description of the car. Early the next morning the police caught the two boys in the stolen car and took them to police headquarters. The charge lodged against the boys was that of grand larceny in the second degree.

Berryann, who was employed by Mr. Cashin as chauffeur, resides on Tremper avenue, while Schermerhorn lives on Cedar street.

THURSDAY RECORD BREAKER AT FAIR; BEST EXHIBITS YET; MIDWAY RAIDED BY CIVIC LEAGUE REFORMER

The Rev. Rennets C. Miller Has an Exciting Time With Crowd and Angry Operators of Gambling Devices After He Has Had Their Games Suppressed at Ellenville.

Thursday's record breaking crowd at the Ellenville Fair were unanimous in their praise of the exhibits which were conceded to be better than exhibits at any other previous fair. The fine exhibit of Jerseys of Yama Farms at Napanoch attracted much attention, but the Farms do not compete for premiums. All prizes on Jerseys were carried off by John George of Eureka.

Ellenville Guernseys took all prizes in that class, the cattle being entered by Walsh & Wintish of that place.

Poultry Winners.
In the poultry department, Ray C. Brown of Hampden, Washington county, won more prizes on bantams than any other exhibitor. He has the largest exhibit of bantams of any man in the United States and has won more prizes for every known variety of bantams than any other poultry raiser in America.

Harry Dawson of Walden carried off nearly all prizes for game bantams.

Price Moore, owner of "My Own Poultry Farm," was the largest exhibitor of large fowl and water fowl, having three carloads of exhibits, and was the largest winner in those classes.

Fruit Department.
The largest display of fruit was that entered by Mrs. W. P. Masten of Pleasant Valley, who was awarded the prize for the best display.

J. W. Weaver & Son of Highland won first prize for the best display of fruit packed ready for market, and other large winners for fruit were Graham Hurd & Son of Clintondale and A. B. Tice of Spring Glen.

Vegetable Department.
The Rochester Township Fair Association won the prize for the best display of vegetables packed for market and its display of vegetables opened the eyes of many visitors to the results which can be accomplished in this way.

Lorin Krom of Accord won sixty-first prize for potatoes.

Burgess Had Best Display.
The special prize for the best display at the fair was awarded to Valentine Burgess, Inc., of this city, whose beautiful floral booth far surpassed any previous exhibit by that firm. Visitors agreed that the Burgess exhibit is one of the features of the fair which is worth while a long journey to see.

Is Target Shooting "Gambling?"
Activity along the midway was interrupted during the afternoon when a agent of the New York City League of New York City appeared on the grounds and demanded that most of the attractions along the midway should be closed because they were operating "gambling" games. In this class he included the wheels used in determining winners of chicken races, fancy dressed dolls, canes, flags and so-called Indian blankets, and also the booths where for 25 cents the visitor had a chance of winning a cigar or doll by hitting a moving target with an air gun or by knocking over a ten pin with a flying baseball.

Booths at which prizes were offered only to winners closed down temporarily, but later reopened when they were able to assure every patron of some prize.

Late in the afternoon, one visitor complained that he had lost $40 at one booth where a wheel and number balls were used quietly with certain visitors. He refused to make a complaint against the proprietor because he did not want anyone to know he had lost his money, but said he had continued the game until he lost the system and was sure he could win if he played long enough. That was the only complaint during the day.

The Rev. Rennets C. Miller, representing the New York City League, who on Wednesday visited the fair and found about thirty of the operators of gambling devices after he has had their games suppressed at Ellenville.

duled gambling," makes the following statement:

"About one-third of them had various gambling wheels, the presence of which he declares is prima facie evidence of gambling. So Wednesday night he served written notice on the fair managers that all the gambling concessions must be closed immediately and offered his services to the fair managers in pointing them out. He reminded the managers in his notice that they were violating the Agricultural law which says that the state appropriation for their fair about $4,000, will not be paid if the managers permit gambling. Within an hour after the notice was served on the managers there was big excitement in town. Mr. Miller tried to get the chief of police of Ellenville Wednesday evening to close to wheel gambling devices on the chief business streets, but he says the chief refused to interfere with them.

Thursday afternoon accompanied by the State Police Sergeant at the fair and lawyer Coons of Ellenville Mr. Miller went through the midway and pointed out the illegal concessions and half of them were promptly closed. Mr. Miller says, "We ought to have closed thirty of them, but I wanted to be half way reasonable. Many devices, which are plainly contrary to our state anti-gambling laws do not seem, like gambling to many people, so we let them off easy."

The closed concessions were angry and threatening, some of them cursed the reformer, others surrounded him till quite a mob kept him busy answering questions and facing disagreeable threats and insults. After nearly an hour with the mob he escaped without any serious injury.

Among the many incidents visited these concessions Wednesday, Mr. Miller says he saw what he is confident was a confederate of one of the gambling concessions who lured a young country boy into losing three dollars in less than five minutes and but for a companion who fairly dragged him away the boy would have lost every dollar he had there.

Farm and Home Bureau Exhibits.
Two exhibits in the main building which attracted more visitors than anything else were the booths of the Ulster County Farm Bureau and the Ulster County Home Bureau.

In the Farm Bureau booth was an enlightening exhibit of fruit which had been sprayed and fruit which had not been sprayed, the latter showing the various diseases to which fruit grown along the Hudson river valley is most prevalent. The display included specimens of unsprayed apples from the orchards of A. E. Jansen at New Paltz, and also pears, plums, peaches and quinces.

A map of Ulster county showing how the Ulster County Spray Service is put in practical operation was displayed. It showed the location where the one hundred and eighty-two members of the spray service are located, with red strings leading from such community to a telephone. The map shows how the men were notified by telephone for various sprayings; twenty men were called and they passed word to the members in their neighborhood. The booth among other things also contained exhibits of silage corn gathered in the variety tests which have been conducted in the county for several years. The booth was in charge of Farm Bureau Manager Elwood L. Chase and Mr. Reiner, agent of the Jewish Agricultural Society.

Visitors at the fair were deeply interested in the joint Health Exhibit conducted by the State Department of Health, the Ellenville public health nurse, the Council of Jewish Women and the Ulster County Home Bureau.

The afternoon demonstrations of "Tommy Care" and "Tommy Don't Care" were crowded. "Tommy Care" was acted by Robert Wolf, and "Tommy Don't Care" by Perry Ewing, with the Silverman twins of Ellenville as alternates. The demonstrations at the health exhibit were conducted and explained by Miss Lillian M. Stuart, county Home Bureau manager; Miss Bertha Kingsbury, who is supervising nurse of the state department of health for this district; Mrs. Nellie Riser, the Ellenville public health nurse, and Miss Anna Brenner, of the Council of Jewish Women.

A feature much appreciated by visitors was the women's rest tent and toilet room installed jointly by the Home Bureau and Sanitary Supervisor Goodwin of Ellenville.

Govt Watches W. Va. Situation.
Washington, Aug. 26.—Federal intervention in the threatening West Virginia situation today awaits upon a report from Brigadier General H. H. Bandholtz, who was due to arrive in Charleston, W. Va., this morning to make an investigation of conditions on behalf of the president. The entire West Virginia situation is expected to be laid before the cabinet today together with any reports that may be forthcoming from General Bandholtz.

Governor Morgan of West Virginia has painted the situation most seriously and has declared in a telegram requesting Federal intervention that the presence of armed bands in West Virginia approximates "armed insurrection." He charges that the armed bands have pillaged and marauded on their marches and that they constitute a serious menace to the people of the state.

The president, it is understood, is loath to take steps for federal intervention if he finds that the state forces can cope with the situation, but he will act quickly and decisively if reports show the necessity for federal troops.

Awaiting final decision by the president, which may not come until late today or possibly tomorrow, the war department has taken steps for immediate action. Major General George Reed at Fort Benjamin Harrison has reported that he is prepared to dispatch troops to West Virginia on a moment's notice, that transportation has been provided and that the men are equipped and ready to move.

Bundy Found Dead in Bed.
Harvey J. Bundy, 21 years old, of 184 Hurley avenue, was found dead in bed this morning at his home. Evidently in the best of health and spirits he retired Thursday evening early and nothing was heard from him during the night. This morning he was found lifeless with a cyanide line from a fixture in the room.

Young Bundy was a silk weaver by trade employed in town where he had resided for the past three years. He was born in Connecticut, a son of Frank and North Bundy formerly of West Hurley.

CENSOR DARKENS WEST VA. DRAMA

Big Battle Raged at Blair, Where Only Flourishing Local of Miners' Union is Located—Sheriff's Deputies in Hundreds—Miners Camped at Indian Creek.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 26.—All efforts to confirm reports of a gun battle at Blair, said to have been participated in by three hundred deputy sheriffs and a large force of armed miners, have failed early this morning.

Sheriff Don Chaffin, whose deputies are said to have been parties to the battle, has established a war-like censorship, and in response to all requests for information simply says, "we are not giving out anything."

Signs of activity were reported at the encampment of miners at Indian Creek, near Racine, in Boone county, early this morning. Watches said that all indications pointed to the probability that the marchers were about to break camp and resume their march to Mingo county.

The camp itself presents an extremely military appearance, were it not for the motley garb of the "army."

Sentinels watched throughout the night and none but those able to satisfy the men on guard were permitted to enter or depart.

The armed miners, who left Marmet, twelve miles east of here early yesterday morning, had been encamped on Lens Creek for a week and had gathered with the avowed purpose of marching to Mingo county and ending the reign of martial law enforced by Governor E. F. Morgan.

The censorship established by Sheriff Chaffin upon all reports to the outside has thus far prevented establishment of the fact as to whether the battle reported at Blair was fought by a detachment of the camp or the independent body.

Blair, the scene of the reported battle, is a mining town near Boone county line in Logan county. It is almost the only town in that section which has a thriving local of the United Mine Workers of America and C. F. Keeney of District 17, said today that he had received reports from there that members of the union "expected trouble" but that they had "prepared for it" by digging trenches in the hills for protection.

In view of this statement it is thought likely that the clash there may have been between union miners living at Blair and Sheriff Chaffin's deputies.

DR. ERZBERGER IS MURDERED

Was One of Foremost Figures in German Politics and None in Germany Was So Well Hated By Kaiser's Friends—Was Signer of Armistice.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Berlin, Aug. 26.—Dr. Matthias Erzberger, former minister of finance and one of the foremost figures in the German political world was murdered here today.

No man in modern times has "fluctuated" in the sentiments of his compatriots as Dr. Matthias Erzberger, for a quarter of a century the "ear" of the German Centrist (Catholic) Party and former finance minister. From the height of popular idolatry he plunged into a position where he was easily the most hated man in Germany.

Once before a would-be assassin's revolver was fired at him; he was wounded and hovered between life and death for some time, after which he turned up again in the Reichstag rotunda and smiling, provoking tumultuous cheers and cries of "Erzberger Luek."

Erzberger was head of the German armistice commission. While the negotiations in 1918 were pending, he embodied the last hopes of a crumbling empire; once he had signed the armistice, almost universal contempt was showered upon him and he has been ever since the man upon whom all the hatred and all the vilification of the Kaiserist conservatives have been concentrated.

Born in a humble station, the son of a middle class family, Erzberger became a country school teacher and did not dream of entering politics until admirers of his suave personality and nimble wits "put him over" in a provincial election. He rose with lightning like swiftness to an almost despotic position in the empire's politics and was regarded as the shrewdest and most successful politician in central Europe.

Creek Bridge Gap Closing.
Still Reaching Out From Ends Is Within 135 Feet of Meeting and It Is Expected That Framework Will Be United by Saturday.

With the two ends of the steel framework of the Rondout creek bridge reaching out over the creek to within 135 feet of each other it is expected that when the bridge workers quit work Saturday at noon the two ends will be joined together. Rapid progress is being made by Terry & Tench on the bridge and with the steel framework in place the work of laying the bridge flooring will go ahead rapidly.

The work on the bridge is in charge of Superintendent Spooner and he expects the work to progress without any unnecessary delay. The wreck of the big derrick on West Strand which fell on Thursday has not delayed the work on the bridge for the work for which the derrick was used was practically completed.

The steel framework is being hoisted into place by traveling cranes. There is a traveler, as the crane is called, on each end of the bridge and the traveler hoists the steel into place. As fast as the framework is placed in position it is hung from the two huge cables with smaller cables known as suspensors.

The flooring of the bridge will also be laid from both ends of the bridge and in this way an equal weight will be brought to bear on both ends of the framework.

Frank Buntion of Howland avenue is at work with a force of men demolishing some of the old buildings on the property of the Newark Line & Cement Company on the Strand in Ponchockee. Among the buildings taken down was the old company office. Some of the big brick chimneys will also be taken down by Mr. Buntion. Since the closing down of the cement works and the tearing down of buildings on the property have not been used, and appeared as though they were ready to fall at any time.

Judge Rensch Coming To Rake.

A large attendance of lawyers is expected not only because of the lake itself but also on account of the numerous attractions arranged by the committee in charge of entertainment.

Arrest of Alleged Financial Juggler's Wife and Two Californians Looked For.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Chicago, Aug. 26.—Arrest of two business men in Los Angeles and a woman in San Diego, California, was expected today as a result of investigations being made by Federal officials into the alleged fraudulent deals of Charles W. French, "Honest John" Washington and their associates. Investigation also was being made of the circumstances that led to the suicide in Minneapolis of A. E. Roberts, believed to have been one of French's agents.

One of the men whose arrest has been asked of Los Angeles authorities is Colonel George C. Hall. He is said to have had dealings with French Washington based for a period of five years. His name appears scores of times in documents seized from French and Washington. The name of the second Los Angeles man has not been disclosed.

The woman, whose apprehension is desired, is Mrs. Charles W. French, wife of the self-styled financial wizard. She has been living on a ranch near San Diego and Federal officials believe she has important knowledge of her husband's activities.

Several days ago Roberts is said to have wired Rudolph E. Kohn, an attorney, Chicago member of the band, asking for $5,000. Kohn was under arrest and did not reply. Roberts' body was found in Lake Huron at Muskegonville late yesterday.

SINN FEIN GETS QUICK ANSWER

England's Reply to Irish Note Holding Out for Independence is Given to De Valera's Envoy This Afternoon.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
London, Aug. 26.—Premier Lloyd-George's rejoinder to the Sinn Fein note rejecting the English peace offer was dispatched this afternoon.

The communication was received on behalf of the Sinn Fein by Art O'Brien, head of the Irish Self-Determination League and the so-called "Sinn Fein ambassador in London."

The amazing swiftness with which the British cabinet made reply to the Sinn Fein astonished London.

PEACE BRINGS NEW PROBLEMS.
Harding Must Now Decide Future of American Army of Occupation and Whether U. S. Shall Voluntarily Accept Any of Versailles Treaty Responsibilities.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Aug. 26.—The United States and Germany having entered into a formal peace treaty, President Harding and his cabinet today are confronted with the problem of new and important decisions.

The treaty of peace with Germany, published here last night, discloses that all of the rights of the United States in the Versailles treaty are protected while this nation is not bound by any of the responsibilities of that pact. It now remains for the president and his advisers to determine whether they wish to accept any of the responsibilities of the Versailles pact.

The outstanding decisions which it appears must soon be made by the president is with regard to the American army of occupation in Germany. These forces have been maintained in Germany under the terms of the armistice entered into on November 11, 1918. The treaty just concluded also concludes that armistice. Under the present treaty the United States may still decide to maintain its forces in Germany under the terms of the Versailles pact, but it need not do so. There has been considerable pressure from members of the senate for the recall of these troops and it remains for the president to decide what course shall be taken. The United States holds the right to keep the troops there if it desires, but under the provisions of the treaty, it appears that there is little advantage in keeping the American forces in Germany. Nevertheless in army circles the opinion prevailed today that the American army of occupation would be maintained, although it might be very greatly reduced.

The treaty confirms all concessions made by Germany in the Versailles pact and therefore is a confirmation of the right of the United States to its claims upon the Isle of Yap. Girded by this confirmation from Germany in the Yap concession, the United States is in a position to push its claims that the Pacific island be internationalized, for this nation does not recognize the mandate handed over to Japan by the Supreme Council. What steps in the Yap controversy will follow the signing of the German treaty are still a matter of conjecture.

SINN FEIN WILLING TO NEGOTIATE FURTHER IF IT WILL LEAD TO FREEDOM; DE VALERA RE-ELECTED

Dail's Unanimous Rejection Leaves Chance For Peace Commission—Irish "President" and "Cabinet" Praised at Session of Parliament Where They are Chosen to Continue Leadership.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
London, Aug. 26.—While Dail Eireann (the Sinn Fein parliament), has rejected Premier Lloyd-George's peace proposals, the Irish republicans are willing to continue negotiations through a peace commission. It was revealed today when the text of Eamonn de Valera's reply was published.

"Dail Eireann, by unanimous vote, has rejected the proposals of your government," said the document. "I cannot believe," continued de Valera's message, "that your government intended to commit itself to the principle of sheer militarism which is destructive to international morality and fatal to the world's peace."

"If small nations have their right to independence forfeited when more powerful neighbors covet their territory for military advantages there is an end to liberty and no longer can any small nation claim the right to separate, sovereign existence."

"However, if on a broad basis peace can be secured we are willing to appoint negotiators."

"Holland and Denmark can be made subservient to Germany. Belgium could be made subservient to Germany or France. Portugal could be over-awed by Spain and so on. To speak of Ireland seceding from a partnership she has never accepted and from an allegiance she has never undertaken to render is fundamentally false just as the claim that we must subordinate our independence to the interests of Britain strategy is fundamentally unjust."

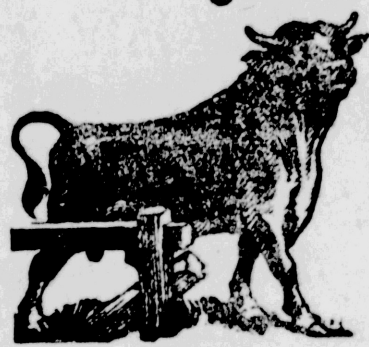

"If the refusal to betray our nation's honor be made an issue for war with Great Britain, we should deprecate it. We are conscious of responsibilities towards the living just as we are mindful of obligations to our heroic dead. We never sought and we do not seek war but if war is made upon us we must defend ourselves."

"I shall remain confident that whether our defense is successful or unsuccessful nobody—not representative Irishman or Irishwoman—will ever propose that the nation surrender its birthright."

"We long for the end of the conflict. If your government is determined to impose its will by force and antecedent negotiations and insists upon conditions involving the whole of our national position it would make the negotiations a mockery and the responsibility for the conflict then would rest with you."

Dublin, Aug. 26.—Eamonn de Valera was today unanimously re-elected president of the Irish republic by Dail Eireann (the Sinn Fein parliament). He was nominated by Commandant John MacKeown, of the Irish republican army, a member of Dail Eireann.

LOTS OF REAL FOOD AT THE BIG PICNIC

Home Bureau Delegation Gives The Freeman a Deserved Calling Down —"But What Could We Expect of a Lot of Men."

A delegation of ladies, officers and members of the Ulster County Home Bureau, some of them young and beautiful and others not so much so, but all energetic, indignant and scornful, called at The Freeman editorial rooms this morning and demanded that "something be done about it right away." Most of them talked at the same time and for the first five minutes about all that the editor could make out was that in their opinion he didn't know much about anything and nothing at all about food. Finally one, who talked the others down, made it clear that the picnic of the Farm and Home Bureau, to be held next Wednesday, August 31, in Forsyth Park, had been grossly misrepresented, or at least not properly described as to the kind and variety of the food that would be for sale.

"To read your old paper anyone would think there would be nothing there but cider and hot dogs," said the persistent one who had tired the others out. "You've scared half the women in the county away from the picnic by making them think they cannot come unless they work all day Tuesday cooking up a lot of lunch to feed their hungry men folks, or else give the man an excuse for running wild all over Kingston in search of food. Cider and hot dogs are all right and we are going to let Mr. Hathaway and Mr. Davis sell them, but who can live on just cider and hot dogs?"

"We always have had lots of real food at our picnics and we are going to have more this year than ever. Any woman who works her head off cooking up a lunch to bring to the picnic is foolish, for we are going to have lots of sandwiches, of every kind that ever was invented, and we are going to have coffee and soda water and ice cream and milk and lemonade and fruit and peanuts and fudge and other real substantial food for sale. And it will be cheap and clean and fresh and good and you buy checks from a nice looking young lady cashier so you don't have to fuss with change when you are buying things at the stands."

"But you have made so much fuss over the speech Col. Roosevelt is going to make, and the baseball game, and the athletics, and the cider and hot dogs, that you have created an impression that there will be nothing to eat."

"What else could we expect of a lot of men?"

LOTS OF REAL FOOD AT THE BIG PICNIC

Home Bureau Delegation Gives The Freeman a Deserved Calling Down —"But What Could We Expect of a Lot of Men."

A delegation of ladies, officers and members of the Ulster County Home Bureau, some of them young and beautiful and others not so much so, but all energetic, indignant and scornful, called at The Freeman editorial rooms this morning and demanded that "something be done about it right away." Most of them talked at the same time and for the first five minutes about all that the editor could make out was that in their opinion he didn't know much about anything and nothing at all about food. Finally one, who talked the others down, made it clear that the picnic of the Farm and Home Bureau, to be held next Wednesday, August 31, in Forsyth Park, had been grossly misrepresented, or at least not properly described as to the kind and variety of the food that would be for sale.

"To read your old paper anyone would think there would be nothing there but cider and hot dogs," said the persistent one who had tired the others out. "You've scared half the women in the county away from the picnic by making them think they cannot come unless they work all day Tuesday cooking up a lot of lunch to feed their hungry men folks, or else give the man an excuse for running wild all over Kingston in search of food. Cider and hot dogs are all right and we are going to let Mr. Hathaway and Mr. Davis sell them, but who can live on just cider and hot dogs?"

"We always have had lots of real food at our picnics and we are going to have more this year than ever. Any woman who works her head off cooking up a lunch to bring to the picnic is foolish, for we are going to have lots of sandwiches, of every kind that ever was invented, and we are going to have coffee and soda water and ice cream and milk and lemonade and fruit and peanuts and fudge and other real substantial food for sale. And it will be cheap and clean and fresh and good and you buy checks from a nice looking young lady cashier so you don't have to fust with change when you are buying things at the stand."

"But you have made so much fuss over the speech Col. Roosevelt is going to make, and the baseball game, and the athletics, and the cider and hot dogs, that you have created an impression that there will be nothing to eat."

"What else could we expect of a lot of men?"

KINGSTON, N. Y., AUG. 26, 1921.

THE BUFFALO COMES BACK.

Although long supposed to be practically extinct, a doomed species sure to pass away entirely, it seems to have been successfully demonstrated that the buffalo, or American bison, can come back in large numbers, provided that there is available territory for him to come back in. The commissioner of the Dominion parks branch of the Canadian department of the interior gives, in the Bulletin of the American Game protective Association, the history of an experiment in the protection of a few buffaloes begun in 1908. It appears several small herds were placed in Buffalo Park, in Alberta province, on a tract of about 100,000 acres, and were gradually added to until in 1912 they numbered about 740. Left to themselves, except for protection, they now number more than 5,000, and, as the commissioner expresses it, have become "an embarrassment of riches." In addition to this protected group we read of the recent discovery of a small wild herd in distant Canadian forests, long spoken of by the Indians but until of late popularly regarded as mythical.

As the 5,000 buffaloes in Alberta are strong and healthy as well as prolific, all that would seem to be needed for the perpetuation of this creature of the great open spaces is the provision of ranges of sufficient extent, which is the real problem under modern conditions of advancing settlement and the reduction of the wild areas. As the buffalo can get a living where ordinary cattle can not, the unclaimed spaces of upper Canada would still seem to offer him opportunity to prolong the period of his possible flourishing existence on this continent, although his battle for life must inevitably become more serious than it was in the highly favorable conditions of the past.

THE POOR FARMERS.

There has been so much talk in Congress about the poor farmers, and the bounden duty of a paternal government to "do something" for them, first above all, that it is a pleasure to hear of their speculations in stocks, even though such investments do not appear to be as wise in all cases as they might be. The Kansas City Star tells a very interesting story of how last spring the Missouri College of Agriculture sent a trainload of exhibition cattle about the State with the purpose of stressing the importance of investing in good breeds, and of how, when a stop was made in Henry county, no farmers showed up because they had all gone to Clinton to attend "a picnic and barbecue" which was given to assist "the sale of stock in a rubber and tire company."

It seems that there was not only a great "jollification" but a sale of about $100,000 worth of supposedly gift-edged stock. This was all very agreeable, but about two months later came the depressing news that the rubber and tire company had gone broke and perhaps had never succeeded in becoming a going concern at all. One disgusted farmer is quoted as saying that "we could have bought a whole lot of good bulls with the money we may lose," and as adding that hereafter he would "stick to the business of raising and selling crops and live stock." An excellent, if belated, resolution. It might be remarked, but the more notable point is that farmers who have ready money to risk on doubtful stocks are not as desperately embarrassed as is supposed and, before considering measures of relief, Congress could well afford to devote a larger share of its attention to more pressing concerns.

With the industries of all other countries protesting against the imposition of protective duties at American ports, it begins to look as though there is a real need for return to the Republican protective principle. The Republican Congress does not propose to shut out importations entirely but merely to impose a tax which will put the American producer on something like an equality with his foreign competitor in our own markets. The American producer not only pays local, state and Federal taxes, but he pays the American standard of wages and maintains American standards of working conditions. He buys American raw materials where available. This being true, why shouldn't the foreign importer be required to pay an import tax for the privilege of marketing his cheap products here?

Secretary of War Weeks believes an army officer should have practical knowledge, gained by actual experience, in commanding troops. And he is right. The successful railroad man, the successful construction contractor, the successful merchant, are all men who began at the bottom and learned every phase of the work they later were called upon to supervise.

What do you know about Nature Subjects? Send any questions of general interest to the Nature Notes Department of this paper. Look for answers in this column.

Can You Answer These Questions.

1. Are porcupines found all over America?
2. Can the "water witch" really find water with a divining rod, and what explains this?
3. What is the largest bird in the world and where does it live?

Answers in Tomorrow's Nature NotesAnswers to Previous Questions.

1. How can flies be driven from an inadequately screened room, when there is no control of the source? Try ordinary wire fly traps used plentifully, and baited with molasses, odorless cheese or any food experiment proves an attraction. Empty frequently first dipping in boiling water to kill flies, and rebait. Or poison flies by setting out saucers of sweetened water or sweetened milk and water with a teaspoonful of formalin to each teaspoon of liquid. Keep this away from children and pets, and sweep and burn the poisoned flies.

2. Do birds have a second breeding season after reaching southern quarters in winter?

No, there is no evidence to back up such a theory. Some students have been misled by finding birds resembling winter southern visitors or residents, that do breed in sub-equatorial regions. But these proved merely southern representatives or allied forms of the northern species, and were merely following their own normal routine.

3. I would like to know what it is that makes the light in the lightning bug?

Same as the glow-worm. The insect is a beetle of the Lampyridae family, whose members are characteristically luminous. The light is supposed to be due to fatty cells wrapped around the breathing apparatus in the abdomen. The oxygen taken in breathing stimulates these fatty cells to a sort of combustion, and makes them glow.

ON-A-JOB, OFF-A-JOB JIM!

Being a Story
Of how Jim got on a job and why he got off it again.

Jim hesitated when the lady of the house asked him to act as butler the next day. She was planning a dinner party, and liked Jim's carriage and manner so well that she wished to make use of him.

"I've got a strange request to make," Jim said. "Is this job of butlering good for two days?"

"Certainly not! I'm having a dinner for twelve tomorrow night. That's all."

"Then I'm afraid I can't assist you. I've got to hold down a job for two days." Jim did not explain further for he did not care to have the unusual conditions in his uncle's will, that he change his job every two days, aired before the public. He was afraid Miss Billings had a tendency to over-talk.

"If that's the case," his employer replied with alacrity, "we'll call it two days and I'll have my relatives from Chatham-way here for the next day."

Considering how little Jim knew about butlering, he managed to get through the ordeal with success. He dreaded the first dinner party, but once over, he looked forward with more interest to the second. He polished silver and glassware, set the table, and arranged the light drinks. Then he waited with sober mien for the entrance of the relatives. He held a chair for a fashionably dressed blonde who disdained to notice his attention as she chatted volubly with the anaemic individual at her right.

Suddenly she saw Jim and stopped her chatter, her mouth wide open in astonishment. "Why Jimmie Lawrence!" she exclaimed, "where in the world did you come from and why are you masquerading as my aunt's butler?"

Jim stood speechless. Would he deny his identity to this girl who might have been Mrs. Jimmie if he had not been left such an unusual bequest? This girl who appeared so tawdry and common and empty, compared with Molly, the young farmette whom he had been working for. Not that he was in love with Molly! He had simply learned to appreciate the wholesomeness of her.

"To think that you have been left $2,000,000 by your uncle and this is the way you keep yourself hidden," the girl continued. "All the folks thought you were a mighty poor skate to slip off with so much cash. That's not the way to treat your friends."

"You're very much mistaken, Miss Ferguson," the butler replied. His eyes looking coldly into hers. "I am not the possessor of $2,000,000, nor $300. I am a poor man, obliged to earn my living. If I disappeared, it was for the very reason that I doubted if either you or other girls would care to be associated with a man who has to pitch right in and dig!"

"Someone has made a frightful mistake," mumbled Miss Ferguson, drinking nervously from the goblet. "Well, I'm sure I wish you luck, James. Will you fill my glass again?"

LAWYERS BETTER KEEP TOGETHER

After mysterious conferences early this morning Attorneys Groves, Shufeldt and Gillette were seen departing for Mr. Gillette's headquarters in Port Ewen filled with suppressed excitement. Investigation disclosed that Henry Klein had unearthed a plot on the part of the lawyers of southern Ulster, headed by Lawyer Lent of Highland and Vanderlyn of New Paltz, to proceed direct to the clam bake at Lake Katrine Saturday, to be held by the Ulster County Bar Association, without stopping at the court house at 12 o'clock noon to join the Kingston and other aggregations of lawyers from the other sections of the county. This situation would very probably result in all the clams disappearing before the arrival of the other attorneys who were to start from the court house, and the committee going into the hands of a receiver.

It is believed that diplomatic negotiations will result in every lawyer in Ulster county meeting promptly at 12 o'clock noon at the court house, Kingston, and then proceeding to Cuneo's Hotel at Lake Katrine in an orderly manner. Autos will be provided for everybody, according to the managers of the bake—and the only thing lacking in the preparations is equipment for the crack base ball game which will be staged some time during the afternoon, provided room for a game can be found.

Judge Hasbrouck and Judge Rosch have notified Secretary Gillette that they will be present and will arrive very hungry. Judge Rosch has the reputation of being fond of clams particularly, and inasmuch as he will have some distance to travel before arriving at the bake and is a candidate for re-election, this fall as supreme court justice, special arrangements have been made as to the location of his plate at the festive board.

Devotional Exercises at Glasco. Glasco, Aug. 26.—St. Joseph's Church was lately the scene of various celebrations. August 14, the Forty Hour Devotion begun with high Mass. The girls' choir rendered the beautiful Convent Mass by Gounod, the Rev. J. Eula, pastor, assisting them, with his powerful bass voice and also sung the Ave Maria by Luzzi at the offertory. Mrs. J. Kohler, organist, presided at the organ. A visiting priest preached a long, interesting sermon. In the evening there was again devotion, sermon and benediction, at which the choir and the Rev. Eula sang the O Salutaris by Lezzi and Tantum Ergo by Rossi. On August 15, the Feast of the Assumption was also celebrated with high Mass. At 3 o'clock a large procession, with the Glasco Band ahead, took place through the various streets of Glasco, closing with benediction in the church. In the evening a picnic was held near the river, where a fine display of fireworks took place. August 16, in the evening, the Forty Hours closed with procession in the church. Sunday, August 21, St. Roch's Day was celebrated in like manner as the Feast of the Assumption.

The winners in the Movie Title Contest, conducted by the New York American, will be announced next Sunday, August 28, 1921, in the New York American. On sale at all news dealers.—Advertisement.

New Lyric Theater, Strand St. A Jewish show will be played on Friday evening, August 26, 1921, at 8 o'clock. Admission: Adults, 50c; children, 25c.—Advertisement.

Read These ABC Rules About Batteries

Adjustment and oiling make your bearings last longer—proper inflation and careful driving make your tires last longer—cleaning makes your spark plugs serve longer and better. It is worth remembering that there are rules just as simple for making your battery last longer and serve more faithfully.

Here are three rules in A B C form:

- 1—Put in water regularly and keep up the charge.
- 2—Come in every two weeks for battery service.
- 3—And when your present battery wears out, buy a Willard Threaded Rubber Battery—the only battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation between the plates.

There is only one battery good enough for us to back by our unqualified recommendation—that's the Willard Threaded Rubber Battery. Come in—and we'll show you some records it has made right here.

POLITICIANS MISS SOME FINE RACES

Were conspicuous by their absence at fair on day reserved for them—Maben's Horse Takes One Race And Junior Hal The Other.

Some of the best horse racing seen in Ulster county in many years was a feature which interested a record-breaking crowd at the Ellenville Fair Thursday. A large part of the crowd came by automobile, about nine hundred cars being parked within the fair grounds during the afternoon.

Thursday day at the fair, but there was a notable absence of politicians from around the county, the only politicians who traveled from their homes to the fair being Supervisor Joel Brink of Katrine, Supervisor Gross Schoonmaker of Accord, Fire Warden George W. Garrison of Allgerville and ex-County Treasurer Albert H. Cook of this city.

But if Kingston politicians were missing from the fair, Kingston carried off honors in other ways. Dr. W. Maben's well known King Bob won the 2:21 class trot or pace in straight heats, and Starlight McKinney owned by his partner, Harry B. Walker, taking fourth money in the 2:17 class trot or pace. The 2:21 class, with eight starters, was as fine a race as ever has taken place on an Ulster county race track, and the excitement of the crowd in the grandstand and on the field was shown by their shouts and applause at the end of each of the three heats. Betting among spectators in the field on both races was heavy. The horses scored half a dozen times before getting the word. In drawing for position for the first heat, King Bob drew the pole and easily maintained the lead both times around the track. The second heat was marked by a neck and neck race between Miss Chamberlain, who had second place in the first heat, and Special Parole, who beat her out for that position in the second. The third heat found the four horses among which the money was divided closely bunched until they came to the stretch when King Bob drew ahead easily and won by a length.

Junior Hal, driven by Mr. Murray, was a favorite for the 2:17 class and it was therefore a surprise when the first heat was taken by Mary Anderson, with the favorite finishing fourth. In the three succeeding heats, however, Junior Hal showed the speed expected and the time of 2:07 1/4 for the second heat and 2:17 1/4 for the third were an indication of what the horse is capable of doing when driven by Mr. Murray.

J. Cyril Begg of Mt. Vernon, Ill., who for several years was engaged in the horse business with the late William M. Freer of this city, acted as starter and at the close of each race was visited by the various drivers who thanked him for his fairness in seeing that everyone had a good start for each race. The judges were W. L. LeHiff of Keene, N.H., who has acted as judge at the Ellenville Fair races on many occasions, and William S. Doyle, Guernsey Webb, John Dunlop and Silas S. Shurtler acted as timekeepers and Vernon J. Kelder was clerk of the course.

Between heats, musical selections, including many old-time melodies, were played by the band in front of the two grandstands, and Mr. LeHiff and O. S. Smith of Livingston, Mass., entertained the huge crowd with vocal selections. Mr. LeHiff is known as the singing judge, and possesses a baritone voice of rare quality. Mr. Smith has a sweet tenor voice. He is a veteran of the World War, who was gassed while in service. Because of continued aggravation from the effects of gas he was taken out of vocational training by the government and sent to the Shawangunk Mountain region to recover fully his health.

GILDERSLEEVE'S GUARANTEE GOOD

Thursday evening Manager Gildersleeve certainly more than made good on promise to the people of Kingston and vicinity a delightful evening of two dramas, when "Shaving" was presented by a cast of noted artists. Harry Brink of Katrine, who has the reputation of being the best actor of the county, and who has been an actor in many of the most successful plays, was the star of the evening. He was thoroughly at home in the part, and his performance was a surprise. The play itself is good, wholesome with the end of clever and full of sustaining interest. It is set

J. A. STEWART, 99, IS GOING STRONG

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, Aug. 26.—Wall Street's
"grand old man," John A. Stewart, is ninety-nine years old today, and he has lived long enough, he believes, to be quite sure the world is improving,
and that the old times are not the best after all, as many old timers claim.

The "Grand Old Man" is still strong enough to walk briskly without the use of a cane and he reads newspapers without eyeglasses. Furthermore, he is an active chairman of the board of trustees of the United States Trust Company.

"I haven't used tobacco in any form since I was twenty years old,
and I believe that is one of the reasons I have kept my health," he said today. He registers but one complaint on modern times, and that is against the tendency of the young women of today to smoke.

THE BUFFALO COMES BACK.

Although long supposed to be practically extinct, a doomed species sure to pass away entirely, it seems to have been successfully demonstrated that the buffalo, or American bison, can come back in large numbers, provided that there is available territory for him to come back in. The commissioner of the Dominion parks branch of the Canadian department of the interior gives, in the Bulletin of the American Game protective Association, the history of an experiment in the protection of a few buffaloes begun in 1908. It appears several small herds were placed in Buffalo Park, in Alberta province, on a tract of about 100,000 acres, and were gradually added to until in 1912 they numbered about 740. Left to themselves, except for protection, they now number more than 5,000, and, as the commissioner expresses it, have become "an embarrassment of riches." In addition to this protected group we read of the recent discovery of a small wild herd in distant Canadian forests, long spoken of by the Indians but until of late popularly regarded as mythical. As the 5,000 buffaloes in Alberta are strong and healthy as well as prolific, all that would seem to be needed for the perpetuation of this creature of the great open spaces is the provision of ranges of sufficient extent, which is the real problem under modern conditions of advancing settlement and the reduction of the wild areas. As the buffalo can get a living where ordinary cattle can not, the unclaimed spaces of upper Canada would still seem to offer him opportunity to prolong the period of his possible flourishing existence on this continent, although his battle for life must inevitably become more serious than it was in the highly favorable conditions of the past.

THE POOR FARMERS.

There has been so much talk in Congress about the poor farmers, and the bounden duty of a paternal government to "do something" for them, that above all, that it is a pleasure to hear of their speculations in stocks, even though such investments do not appear to be as wise in all cases as they might be. The Kansas City Star tells a very interesting story of how last spring the Missouri College of Agriculture sent a trainload of exhibition cattle about the State with the purpose of stressing the importance of investing in good breeds, and of how, when a stop was made in Henry county, so farmers showed up because they had all gone to Clinton to attend "a picnic and barbecue" which was given to assist "the sale of stock in a rubber and tire company."

It seems that there was not only a great "jollification" but a sale of about $100,000 worth of supposedly gift-edged stock. This was all very agreeable, but about two months later came the depressing news that the rubber and tire company had gone broke and perhaps had never succeeded in becoming a going concern at all. One disgusted farmer is quoted as saying that "we could have bought a whole lot of good bulls with the money we may lose," and as adding that hereafter he would "stick to the business of raising and selling crops and live stock." An excellent, if belated, resolution, it might be remarked, but the more notable point is that farmers who have ready money to risk on doubtful stocks are not as desperately embarrassed as is supposed and, before considering measures of relief, Congress could well afford to devote a larger share of its attention to more pressing concerns.

With the industries of all other countries protected against the importation of protective duties at American ports, it begins to look as though there is a real need for return to the Republican protective principle. The Republican Congress does not propose to shut out importations entirely but merely to impose a tax which will put the American producer on something like an equality with his foreign competitor in our own markets. The American producer not only pays local, state and Federal taxes, but he pays the American standard of wages and maintains American standards of working conditions. He buys American raw materials where available. This being true, why shouldn't the foreign importer be required to pay an import tax for the privilege of marketing his cheap products here?

Secretary of War Weeks believes an army officer should have practical knowledge, gained by actual experience, in commanding troops. And he is right. The successful railroad man, the successful construction contractor, the successful merchant, are all men who began at the bottom and learned every phase of the work they later were called upon to supervise.

What do you know about Nature Subjects? Send any questions of general interest to the Nature Notes Department of this paper. Look for answers in this column.

Can You Answer These Questions?

1. Are porcupines found all over America?
2. Can the "water witch" really find water with a divining rod, and what explains this?
3. What is the largest bird in the world and where does it live?

Answers in Tomorrow's Nature Notes

Answers To Previous Questions.

1. How can flies be driven from an inadequately screened room, when there is no control of the source? Try ordinary wire fly traps used plentifully, and baited with molasses, odorless cheese or any food experiment proves an attraction. Empty frequently first dipping in boiling water to kill flies, and rebait. Or poison flies by setting out saucers of sweetened water or sweetened milk and water with a teaspoonful of formalin to each teacup of liquid. Keep this away from children and pets and sweep and burn the poisoned flies.

2. Do birds have a second breeding season after reaching southern quarters in winter?

No, there is no evidence to back up such a theory. Some students have been misled by finding birds resembling winter southern visitors or residents, that do breed in sub-equatorial regions. But these proved merely southern representatives or allied forms of the northern species, and were merely following their own normal routine.

3. I would like to know what it is that makes the light in the lightning bug? Same as the glow-worm. The insect is a beetle of the Lampyridae family, whose members are characteristically luminous. The light is supposed to be due to fatty cells wrapped around the breathing apparatus in the abdomen. The oxygen taken in breathing stimulates these fatty cells to a sort of combustion, and makes them glow.

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, Aug. 26.—Miss Carolina Hickok, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Harry Hommel, on Broadway, has returned to her home at Stamford, N. Y.

Mrs. Martha Neal and daughter, Miss Mary Neal, and son, John Neal, who have been residents of Port Ewen for 9 years, will move to Kingston on West Chestnut street September fifteenth. We are very sorry to have Mrs. Neal and family to leave Port Ewen as they were most desirable citizens and very willing workers in the Methodist Church. Our loss is Kingston's gain.

Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Elsworth of Green street are guests of friends in Stamford, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Mead Davis of Main street are guests of the Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Bookhout at Great Barrington, Mass.

ON-A-JOB, OFF-A-JOB JIM!

Being a Story
 Of how Jim got on a job and why he got off it again.

Jim hesitated when the lady of the house asked him to act as butler the next day. She was planning a dinner party, and liked Jim's carriage and manner so well that she wished to make use of him.

"I've got a strange request to make," Jim said. "Is this job of butlering good for two days?"

"Certainly not! I'm having a dinner for twelve tomorrow night. That's all."

"Then I'm afraid I can't assist you. I've got to hold down a job for two days." Jim did not explain further for he did not care to have the unusual conditions in his uncle's will, that he change his job every two days, aired before the public. He was afraid Miss Billings had a tendency to over-talk.

"If that's the case," his employer replied with alacrity, "we'll call it two days and I'll have my relatives from Chatham-way here for the next day."

Considering how little Jim knew about butlering, he managed to get through the ordeal with success. He dreaded the first dinner party, but once over, he looked forward with more interest to the second. He polished silver and glassware, set the table, and arranged the light drinks. Then he waited with sober mien for the entrance of the relatives. He held a chair for a fashionably dressed blonde who disdained to notice his attention as she chatted volubly with the anaemic individual at her right.

Suddenly she saw Jim and stopped, her chatter, her mouth wide open in astonishment. "Why Jimmie Lawrence!" she exclaimed, "where in the world did you come from and why are you masquerading as my aunt's butler?"

Jim stood speechless. Would he deny his identity to this girl who might have been Mrs. Jimmie if he had not been left such an unusual bequest? This girl who appeared so tawdry and common and empty, compared with Molly, the young farmette whom he had been working for. Yet that he was in love with Molly! He had simply learned to appreciate the wholesomeness of her.

"To think that you have been left $2,000.00 by your uncle and this is the way you keep yourself hidden," the girl continued. "All the folks thought you were a mighty poor skate to slip off with so much cash. That's not the way to treat your friends."

"You're very much mistaken, Miss Ferguson," the butler replied, his eyes looking coldly into hers. "I am not the possessor of $2,000.00, nor $300. I am a poor man, obliged to earn my living. If I disappeared, it was for the very reason that I doubted if either you or other girls would care to be associated with a man who has to pitch right in and dig."

"Someone has made a frightful mistake," mumbled Miss Ferguson, drinking nervously from the goblet. "Well, I'm sure I wish you luck, James. Will you fill my glass again?"

Miss Ruth Garrity, a student of the Moran stenographic department, has been placed in an excellent secretarial position in the Kingston office of the Catholic Charities' organization.

KIWANISTO GO TO POUGHKEEPSIE

Tuesday, August 30, will be a big day for Dutchess county, with the get-together festivities arranged by the Poughkeepsie Kiwanis Club centering at Poughkeepsie and Washington Hollow, 12 miles east of there. Poughkeepsie will treat it as a sort of holiday and most business will be suspended and the stores closed.

The Kingston Kiwanis Club will be represented by a large delegation of members which will meet at the Y. M. C. A. at 1 o'clock that afternoon with their wives or other womenfolk to make the trip by auto. It is desired that all start together and keep that way on the road as it may be no easy job to find each other in the great crowds that are expected. This down-river visit will take the place of the regular Thursday meeting and those wishing to go who have not already done so should inform Chairman Suttill, in charge of arrangements, before Saturday morning to enable him to secure reservations for them at the clubhouse at Washington Hollow. The chairman has not indicated whether he will furnish Packards for all, but says he will be able to find autos for those who notify him in time.

Baseball gossip goes on apace complicated by inability to get a playing field and a worthy opponent in juxtaposition, as it were. The latest prediction is that Rotary will be played at Forsyth Park the first week in September and Poughkeepsie Kiwanis team on September 12.

Roy Suttill reported at Thursday's meeting of the club, for his committee, that a silk Kiwanis banner which he was instructed to negotiate for, would cost a good deal more than a lady's silk dress, or two of them for that matter, and wouldn't contain any more material, so he was instructed to look around at the wool bunting ones and see what he could do. If there are any enterprising dressmakers who could make one a la Betsey Ross after a pattern it would seem a good chance to bid on this job.

What is a Human Soul?

Is it an intangible something that cannot be defined, weighed or estimated?

Have the lower animals souls? If so, do they differ from the souls of human beings?

Is the human soul immortal—death-proof—or can it be obliterated, become extinct?

If you cannot satisfactorily answer these queries, come and hear the solution given by the one and only true source of information, the Bible, at

A Parody.

(To the tune of "Old Black Joe.")
Gone are the days when the boys
were young and gay;
Gone are the bars, where they gave
free lunch away;
Gone are the songs that we sang
those days of yore;
No more we hear their voices calling
"Just one more."

I'm drinking, I'm drinking, at the
soda fountain now;
It seems that things are going to the bow-wow-wow.

Why do I weep when I see a grocery store?
Why do I sigh when I'm getting less
for more?
Grieving for food at the prices long ago.

It seems my pocketbook keeps saying
"So long, Bo."
I'm blowin' my dough in, with the prices staying high;
Like Bonnie Annie Laurie, lie me
down and die.

Kindly omit flowers.
A horse in the road is not half as dangerous as a pony of hootch in the tummy.

Auto-Intoxication.

"What was the excitement down
the street?"
"Oh, a man in a reverie ran into a woman in a tantrum."
"Were the machines badly damaged?"

Many a fish would starve if it wasn't for the "fish" who tried to catch them.

They used to carry corn to mill by the bushel, these nights they bring it
to town by the gallon.

When Henry Ford feels the need of a vacation, he goes tramping. It is restful, to be sure, after riding in a fivver.

Distracted Mother—"Oh, dear,
what shall I do with baby?"
Bright Little Sister—"Didn't we get a book of instruction with it?"

Vacationist—"You know all these things growing in the ground look very much alike to me. How do you know which ones are fresh?"

Summer Resort Episode.
I kissed the hem of her garment,
I was foolish then.
Another fellow came along
And kissed her coat of tan.

The price of "saying it with flowers" often nips that little speech in the bud.

However high a bird may soar, it seeks its food on earth.

The American dollar is a bear-cat away from home. Down in Brazil, it has leaped lightly aloft to three times its value, while at home it is as far below par as a novice at golf.

France is having a hard time keeping ahead of America. She is kicking about no-piece bathing suits.

The man who invests the best he has in his life's work usually gets good dividends in the end.

Dr. Harry Forbes says it is dangerous to have more than seven tea-spoonfuls of water on the brain.
We always suspected that stuff was dangerous.

Vacationing At Home.

The wise woman doesn't wait for vacation to bring cool, joyous atmosphere in the summer days.
She vacations at home, and takes her family with her.

The first thing she does is to get a little breakfast set, and make a summer corner, in which to eat. It may be in the garden or on the porch, or under the windows in the dining room.

But during the summer she doesn't bother with the big table
and all paraphernalia that goes with it. Instead, she makes every meal a summer festival with cool
drinks, and cool salads, and above all, a cool, charming place to eat.

And what fun the family get out of it! They all delight in doing their share in making a stay-at-home vacation. And after all, it is not so much what one does, as it is the change it makes in the routine of the days.

So these gaily painted little breakfast sets are to be seen everywhere, perhaps down under the trees, by the lake, or in a shady corner of the porch. They have come to stay.

And they are a year-round convenience, too, for now-a-days, women are using them every day in the year, for breakfast, at least, and often for other meals, when they wish to take life more easily.

Vacationing at home means living outdoors as much as possible. That means making the porch the most attractive place in the whole house.
And how easily may this be done,
by means of the big, comfortable chairs, in wicker, or reed, or old hickory, that are so inexpensive, yet such a joy, these summer days.

A few years ago the porch was made the resting place of all the uncomfortable chairs in the home.
Now it is bright with chintzes, and comfortable with big chairs. And the long summer evenings are gay with the talk and laughter of the family and their friends.

And now is the time to buy, for

Read These ABC Rules About Batteries

Adjustment and oiling make your bearings last longer—proper inflation and careful driving make your tires last longer—cleaning makes your spark plugs serve longer and better. It is worth remembering that there are rules just as simple for making your battery last longer and serve more faithfully.

Here are three rules in ABC form:

- 1—Put in water regularly and keep up the charge.
- 2—Come in every two weeks for battery service.
- 3—And when your present battery wears out, buy a Willard Threaded Rubber Battery—the only battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation between the plates.

There is only one battery good enough for us to back by our unqualified recommendation—that's the Willard Threaded Rubber Battery. Come in—and we'll show you some records it has made right here.

LAWYERS BETTER KEEP TOGETHER

After mysterious conferences early this morning Attorneys Groves, Shufeldt and Gillette were seen departing for Mr. Gillette's headquarters in Fort Ewen filled with suppressed excitement. Investigation disclosed that Henry Klein had unearthed a plot on the part of the lawyers of southern Ulster, headed by Lawyer Lent of Highland and Vanderlyn of New Paltz, to proceed direct to the claim bake at Lake Katrine Saturday, to be held by the Ulster County Bar Association, without stopping at the court house at 12 o'clock noon to join the Kingston and other aggregations of lawyers from the other sections of the county. This situation would very probably result in all the claims disappearing before the arrival of the other attorneys who were to start from the court house, and the committee going into the hands of a receiver.

It is believed that diplomatic negotiations will result in every lawyer in Ulster county meeting promptly at 12 o'clock noon at the court house, Kingston, and then proceeding to Cuneo's Hotel at Lake Katrine in an orderly manner. Autos will be provided for everybody, according to the managers of the bake—and the only thing lacking in the preparations is equipment for the crack base ball game which will be staged some time during the afternoon, provided room for a game can be found.

Judge Hasbrouck and Judge Rosch have notified Secretary Gillette that they will be present and will arrive very hungry. Judge Rosch has the reputation of being fond of claims particularly, and inasmuch as he will have some distance to travel before arriving at the bake and is a candidate for re-election this fall as supreme court justice, special arrangements have been made as to the location of his plate at the festive board.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Comfortable Work Dress.

Pattern 3636 is here shown. It is cut in 7 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. A 35 inch size will require 6 1/2 yards of 36 inch material.

Percale, gingham, chambray, repp and poplin are suitable for this style. The sleeve has a short outer seam that may be left open and the edges of it finished with buttons and buttonholes for a closing; thus the sleeve may be turned back for convenience in the working. The width of the skirt at the foot is about 2 1/2 yards.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or 1c and 2c stamps, by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Catalogue Notice.
Send 15c in coin or stamps for our up-to-date spring and summer 1921 catalogue, containing 550 designs of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Patterns, a concise and comprehensive article on dressmaking, also some points for the needle illustrating 30 of the various, simple stitches, all valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

Devotional Exercises at Glasco.

Glasco, Aug. 26.—St. Joseph's Church was lately the scene of various celebrations. August 14, the Forty Hour Devotion began with high Mass. The girls' choir rendered the beautiful Convent Mass by Gounod, the Rev. J. Eula, pastor, assisting them with his powerful bass voice and also sang the Ave Maria by Luzzi at the offertory. Mrs. J. Kohler, organist, presided at the organ. A visiting priest preached a long, interesting sermon. In the evening there was again devotion, sermon and benediction, at which the choir and the Rev. Eula sang the O. Salutaris by Letz and Tostani. The feast of the Assumption was also celebrated with high Mass. At 3 o'clock a large procession, with the Glasco Band ahead, took place through the various streets of Glasco, closing with benediction in the church. In the evening a picnic was held near the river, where a fine display of fireworks took place. August 16, in the evening, the Forty Hour devotion procession in the church. Sunday, August 21, St. Roch's Day was celebrated in like manner as the Feast of the Assumption.

The winners in the Morris Title Contest, conducted by the New York American, will be announced next Sunday, August 28, 1921, in the New York American. On sale at all news dealers. Advertisement.

WANT STREET IMPROVED

So They Can Build On Main Street Extension.

George S. Darling, who intends breaking ground for an up-to-date bungalow which he intends to have erected on Main street extension just as soon as the question of the grading and laying of sewers in that street is settled, has secured signers from owners of more than the necessary front feet of property signifying that they are willing to pay the legal amount which the proposed improvements will cost. The petitions have been placed in the hands of Mayor Canfield for presentation to the board of public works and several of the lot owners hope that the Main street extension will be graded and sewer built before winter sets in so that they can start work on proposed bungalows and dwellings on the street. Application will be made to the board of water commissions for the extension of the water main through the street.

Barone Photographs Things Worth While While Enroute.

Marcus J. Barone of Orange, N. J., dressed in khaki uniform stopped over in Kingston Thursday, on a thousand mile walking trip, being on his way to the eastern states. In 1912 he started on a 26,000 mile walk to be covered within five years but the world war stopped his trip as he served as a soldier while it was going on. He has walked 25,000 miles, he says, and the object of his trip is to take photographs of scenes enroute and make a study of nature. When he started on May 1, 1912, he had $1.50 capital and during his walk of 25,000 miles he took in $2 in cash when he returned to Orange, N. J. When he started in 1912 he had a dog with him that was his companion all the time, but the dog died a month after he got home. During his walking trip Barone, who is a bright young man, says he walked in Cuba, Mexico and Europe. He left Orange on Wednesday last and on his trip up the river walked over Bear Mountain, Storm King Mountain and Hook Mountain. From Kingston he went to Catskill and his route will be through the Berkshires to Boston, and will walk through New Hampshire and Vermont. Besides a large camera Barone also carries around his neck a roll of blankets on which he sleeps at night out of doors.

S. GERMAN TREATY SIGNED

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Berlin, Aug. 26.—Leading German newspapers today expressed satisfaction over the signing of the German-American peace treaty, but the people were warned not to expect too much from it. The public was told that the separate treaty with America will not change the conditions that have already been imposed upon this country by the treaty of Versailles.

Germany is expected to ratify the treaty without any delay and German officials believe that the American officials will not give prolonged debate to the document when it is taken up. The lack of ceremony attending the signing was in deep contrast with the pomp and ostentation that accompanied the signing of the treaty of Versailles.

Find Silica of Value.
Silica is claimed to have produced remarkable effects in many cases of arteriosclerosis. French physicians report that sodium silicate, applied by mouth or injections into veins, has brought some bedridden patients back to active life, and relieved others of headache and dizziness, and lessened their insomnia.

SOVIET SUSPICION OF RELIEF GROWS

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Berlin, Aug. 26.—Fears of Soviet officials at Moscow that the foes of Bolshevism plan to use Russian relief as a means of stirring up counter revolution are on the increase, according to information from Moscow today.

There is much agitation against American relief, said a Moscow dispatch to Aftshur Abendblatt. The dispatch quoted as follows from an article written by Karl Radek for Pravda, a Communist newspaper: "If we permit foreign bourgeois relief organizations to retain control of the distribution of food it is equivalent to permitting international counter revolutionary organizations to organize a political revolution on Soviet soil."

Analysis of the Kiss.
In analyzing the psychophysiology of the kiss, Professor Malespine says: "The kiss is the first animal manifestation of love. The passionate look is nothing but desire. The handshake is full of reserve, of constraint, or full of hope. The kiss is simply another and more exquisite manifestation of the sense of touch than the handshake. And it is from the sense of touch that all other senses are derived."

VALUABLE HINTS FOR HOT WEATHER

Why Our Bodies Swell During High Temperature.

BULK COUNTS IN OUR FOOD

Rolling Up the Shirt Sleeves in Theory and Practice—Medical Man Gives Some Little Known Facts Which May Be of Value to the Average Person Who Must Endure Hot Weather—The Active Function and the Digestive Function.

Some little known facts, the possession of which is of value to the average person who must endure hot weather, are called to public attention by the medical correspondent of The London Times. For instance it is not known by the majority of people that the body tends to swell in hot weather, just as the skin does. A knowledge of this fact is of importance to those who intend to wear belts or tight clothing when it is inordinately warm, according to the physician, for, forearmed with this knowledge, they can avoid these contractions.

The physician says that two functions of the body are always to be discerned and differentiated, the active function and the digestive function. The active man is using his brain and his muscles; the digestive man is using his stomach, liver and their internal organs. This is simple enough. What is less simple, or at least less easy for the layman to grasp, is that the nervous system plays a deciding part in both states.

Ask the average man, the doctor suggests, why, at certain moments of his life, he has squared his shoulders and doubled his step. He will answer: "To fight, of course." And the emphasis on the words "of course" will often reveal his idea that the question is as unnecessary as the reply is obvious. But, says the physician, there is nothing obvious about it, as is seen when we reflect that when the shoulders are squared and fists doubled the heart beats quicker and the bowels are emptied of blood. A vast and sudden change has swept over every cell in the body in response to what? To the sight of an enemy. That is to say to an impression or sensation reaching the eyes—or it may be the ears.

The fact emerges—it is sensation, stimulation, events or conditions in the outside world which decide that a particular man shall be active or digestive.

Feeling the Draught.
The physician takes for an example the stimulus of cold. On a cold day the skin receives a kind of bombardment of what he calls "small calls to action," which act on the nerves of this structure and whip them to action. As a result, the small blood vessels of the body are closed, digestive processes are stayed, and the muscles are filled with blood. Thus in cold weather we feel active and are filled with energy.

Quickly moving air naturally cools a man faster than slowly moving air; and damp air is less cooling than dry because there is less evaporation.

Consequently, says the physician, on a hot day with still air, the amount of "cold stimuli" reaching a man's skin is greatly reduced. There are no calls for action of this sort, and the blood vessels tend to remain dilated and open. The blood stays in the body and the body is swollen.

But, we are reminded by the writer, at any time the arrival of food into the stomach is a call for blood for that organ, just as the approach of an enemy is a call for blood to brain and muscles. So in hot weather when food is eaten the already swollen body tends to swell more.

In patients with digestive troubles and heart troubles, the physician tells us, the result of this swelling in hot weather, after a full meal, may be most unpleasant. They feel their "breath short-circuited," they seem to have an oppression on their chests, they feel giddy. In some cases they may faint.

Stripped for Action.

It is obvious then that during hot weather the middle-aged man whose nervous system, thanks to his sedentary life, is less well-balanced than if used to be must act in the light of the knowledge available. In the first place, he must do all that he can to give his skin a chance. He must play for stimulation, so to speak, in order to counteract the tendency of his blood to gather in his body.

He should take off his coat when he gets to his office and roll up his shirt-sleeves. He should open all the windows, but screen out the sunlight. The resulting currents of air playing on his bare arms will give him a really valuable degree of stimulation. A wet towel with which the bare arms may be rubbed occasionally is not a bad idea.

Secondly, he must not eat heavily during the day. It is bulk that counts most, for the greater the bulk the more the tendency to draw blood into the body.

Finally, exercise should be postponed till evening. It should not be abandoned on any account, for the secret of good health is good exercise.

Make It Productive.

For twenty hours this food is baked—one reason you like it—another reason why it digests so easily.

One of the important things in connection with any cereal food is to have it thoroughly baked or cooked. For baking or cooking changes the starch of the grains.

Grape-Nuts is the longest baked of all cereal foods. It is scientifically baked at carefully regulated temperatures for 20 hours. This is one of the reasons why Grape-Nuts digests so easily; why it agrees with many people who cannot take any other form of cereal without producing fermentation.

A goodly part of Grape-Nuts is converted into dextrose, ready to be immediately assimilated by the system, and yield strength and energy. A further portion has partially undergone this change, while there remains sufficient unchanged cereal to strengthen the digestive organs. It is then in a condition to meet the various requirements of the digestive system.

If you want to eat a most strengthening and nourishing food, and one that will digest more readily, go to your grocer today and get a package of Grape-Nuts. Eat it with stewed fruit or as a cereal with milk or cream; or make it into an appetizing pudding.

Every member of the family will enjoy its delicious flavor and wholesomeness.

"WHO AM I?"

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

CATERPILLAR AIR.

"I," said the Caterpillar whose family name was that of Gontweed Emperor, "believe in a little air. Oh, yes, and I'd like to tell creatures that I believe in it. For, if they think that I don't have any air in my home, they are quite mistaken."

"People have windows in their bedrooms and so do I. They open their windows so as to let some nice fresh air come in and so do I."

"They think it is beautiful and that it makes them breathe purer, finer air to do that, and so do I."

"But as I don't think they all know that about me, I am going to tell them about myself."

"I have been told I could tell my story about the air I have in my bedroom and therefore I am going to do so."

"First of all I open my eyes on a little goateed plant which is one of the reasons for my name."

"Then I am a little caterpillar. I use the leaf to sit upon and to eat at, too."

"All creatures cannot do that."

"Who ever heard of a creature smart enough to eat the chair he is sitting in and not want any more food?"

"I never heard of a person who was smart enough to do that nor of any other creatures except my caterpillars. Just because we crawl about doesn't mean that we don't do bright things. We do very bright things indeed, and that is one of them. It saves so much bother about getting both chairs and food into the dining room."

"We don't have to bother about furnishing our dining room, but we take it already furnished in nice leafy style."

"Then we don't have to bother about any dining room table or any dining room table cloth, and we don't bother about going out to the market all the time."

"We have our food with us. We're great creatures, we little caterpillars. Pretty smart, I'd say, and I ought to know. I am one, I am."

"And then to show you how much smarter I am even than that, I can make my dining room and table cloth and dining room chair and food all into a bedroom."

"I Fold It Together."

"Most certainly I can! If you think it sounds impossible I will explain to you how I do it."

"I take the leaf upon which I've been feeding and which has served me well as a dining room table and a table cloth and a dining room chair, and I fold it together very neatly and perfectly."

"At either end I leave an opening. So that I have two windows in my bedroom. Also I can get out or come in at my windows if I want to and I don't need to bother about front doors or back doors, or any doors at all."

"But I do think it is wise to have fresh air, and so I have fresh air."

"The air is outside and one might just as well have it. The air won't object in the least. It says there is plenty of it and everyone can have some."

"So I take some, too. And I nap and dream and change my costume and I grow healthy and fine because I know enough to have fresh air."

"So when children open their windows at night when they are going to bed they might also think of the smart little caterpillar who has a window open at either end of his leafy home where he takes his sleep."

"Some times I have a little silky coverlet in my leafy room which is soft and pleasant to lie upon."

"After I have had my long sleep I become a chrysalis and then I become a gorgeous orange-colored butterfly."

"I often say, too, that one of the reasons I am such a handsome butterfly is because I believe in good fresh air and because of the two windows I always keep open when I am sleeping in my leafy bed."

"That is what I say and I believe it to be quite true."

No Chance.

Remarking from the dentist's where he had gone to have a loose tooth drawn, little Raymond reported as follows: "The doctor told me to be happy that if I cried or screamed it would cost me a dollar, but if I was a good boy it would be only 25 cents."

"Did you scream?" his mother asked.

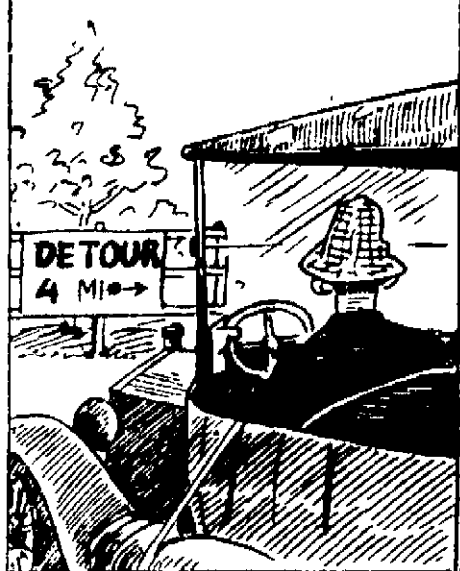

"How could I?" answered Raymond. "You only gave me 25 cents."—Gentle Mirth.

WHAT TO EAT.

Try grated young carrots stirred in to mayonnaise until they give it a decided color.
Serve on head lettuce.

Green Onion Salad.—Take the young green onions, slice thin and pour over a thick sour cream or sweet cream with a dash of vinegar, salt and paprika. This is an especially appetizing salad to serve with bread and butter for a Sunday night lunch.

Snow Balls.—Take one-third of a cupful of butter, and one-half cupful of sugar, one-half cupful of flour, sifted with one-half cupful of cornstarch and three teaspoonfuls of baking powder; add two-thirds of a cupful of milk, and the beaten whites of three eggs. Mix carefully and pour into well-buttered cups, steam in the oven in a pan of hot water for half an hour. Remove from the cups, dust with powdered sugar and serve with strawberry sauce.

Strawberry Sauce.—Mix a tablespoonful of softened butter with one and one-half cupfuls of powdered sugar and one small box of strawberries crushed.

Tomatoes Stuffed With Ripe Olives.—Scrape out the pulp from small, firm, ripe tomatoes. Fry a small onion, chopped fine, in a tablespoonful of butter, add the pulp taken from the tomatoes and a cupful of ripe olives that have been minced fine after removing the seeds, add two tablespoonfuls of bread crumbs, salt and pepper. Fill the tomatoes and bake.

Sponge Cake.—Take four eggs, beating the whites very stiff, then fold in a cupful of sugar, a quarter of a cupful at a time, until all is added; add the yolks one at a time, stirring them lightly so that the mixture is streaked with yellow. Cut in the flour, using one cupful and pour into a buttered pan to bake forty-five minutes.

Gipsy Stew.—Cook together a few potatoes, carrots, peas and tender young onions, add a few cubes of salt pork tried out, using the fat and a little milk. Serve as a vegetable in the usual small dishes.

Unwritten Rule.

Any soda clerk will tell you with disgust of the hesitation with which many customers order their drinks while he waits impatiently. That is why an up-to-date store has little roulette wheels at each table. Instead of waiting the hand turns to the various flavors and specialties.

Stories of Great Scouts

"YELLOWSTONE" KELLY AND HIS RIFLE. "OLD SWEETNESS"

It was the year 1783. The hostile Sioux had surrounded Fort Stevenson, N. D., and any white man who went out alone went to his death. When the mail was sent to Fort Buford, 218 miles away, a full company of soldiers went along to guard it. One day, while the troops were out on a scout, important dispatches came which had to be delivered at once, and there was no one who would dare attempt the hazardous journey.

A young man, named Luther S. Kelly, learning of this, went to the commanding officer and offered to get them through alone. Kelly was a New Yorker who had come west seeking adventure. Because of his youth, the scouts around the fort had nicknamed him "The Kid," and now these men told him he would be scalped before he was a mile from the post. He laughed at them.

"I guess 'Old Sweetness' and I can take care of any Sioux who jumps us," he said. "Old Sweetness" was his pet name for his favorite rifle.

A few hours later Kelly walked into Fort Berthold, 18 miles from Stevenson. The Mandan, Gros Ventre and Arikara Indians, camped about that post for protection against the Sioux, gathered about in admiration of his daring, for they lived in terror of the Dakota warriors.

Kelly stopped at Berthold only long enough to eat and then pushed on to Buford, 200 miles away. Four miles from Berthold he came to a timbered valley. When he reached the bottom, a bullet whizzed past his ears. As the scout dropped behind a log, three Sioux warriors rushed him. "Old Sweetness" spoke three times and the warriors dropped in their tracks. Kelly returned to Fort Berthold and told of his adventure. The friendly Indians were wild with joy, and after that they called Kelly "The Little Man With the Strong Heart."

The scout started again for Fort Buford and delivered the dispatches without further adventure. He became the regular mail carrier, but the Sioux were so frightened of his "strong medicine" that they never attacked him again.

Kelly remained in the United States service as a scout until 1883. He was a lieutenant of volunteers in the Spanish-American war and in the Philippines the old Indian scout, or captain of the Filipino scouts, added further to his laurels of war before he retired as a fighting man.

EXHIBITION AT THE BIG PICNIC

Variety of Farm Equipment and Automobiles to be a Feature—The Cider Mill to be Erected on Monday.

A final meeting of the committee of arrangements for the Farm and Home Bureau and Chamber of Commerce picnic, to be held in Forsyth Park next Wednesday, was held Thursday evening and was not very well attended. President A. E. Jensen was detained on his farm giving final treatment to the trees he had inoculated with rye serum. Millard H. Davis was unable to leave home on account of one of his hot dogs having developed symptoms of epistaxis which he feared would spread to the rest of the herd and William Warren was so worried over the trouncing that the Chamber of Commerce baseball nine was threatening to give the Farm Bureau nine that he was unable to attend.

Chairman Hathaway reported having secured a regular whale of a cider mill from a gentleman named Bunn, and now only lacked power and an experienced miller.

After a spirited debate on the relative advantages of permitting customers to drink from the spout or furnishing them with cups, it was decided to use cups, as it would be too difficult to choke drinkers off from a spout when they had their money's worth.

Roy M. Sutliff of the publicity committee reported that his committee had publicized to a satisfactory extent.

Postmaster DeWitt reported the program completed, although the tug-of-war would have to be omitted because no team could be found brave enough to tug against the huskies of the Department of Public Works.

Mr. Hathaway reported a great demand for exhibition privileges, eight spaces having already been let as follows: Sutliff, Inc., Packard truck; Van Motor Car Co., trucks, two spaces; Canfield Supply Co., farm machinery, two spaces; Gregory & Co., kitchen range and washing machine; Brown & Dressel, pipeless heaters; Stuyvesant Garage, truck.

It was decided to let spaces for exhibiting pleasure cars, as well as for other goods. Application may be made in person or by telephone to the Chamber of Commerce.

The cider mill will be erected Monday so that Mr. Hathaway and his force of millers may practice on it Tuesday and have everything working smoothly Wednesday. Other equipment such as tents, stands for the sale of food and drink, etc., will also be erected Monday and Tuesday under the supervision of the committee.

A CLOSE GAME.

Lace Mills Nose Out Willites Through Errors in Fifth.

By winning Thursday night's game against the Willites the Lace Mills gained a notch in their race for third place in the Industrial League. The Lace Mills have two more games to play. If they win both they are secure in third place, if they break even they will be tied with the Peter Schuyler team.

The contest at the Athletic Field last night proved to be a more interesting affair than was expected. It was a full inning of good ball. The Willites took the lead in the first inning and maintained it until the last half of the last inning, when two wild pitches and McGraw's hit threw the game to the Lace Mills.

Bedford pitched three innings for the Lace Mills but was not in usual form and was succeeded by Atkins. Bedford's three innings netted Bruck's men six hits. But he was supported by a particularly strong outfield, notably J. Jordan, in center and McGraw, in right field. F. Weaver of the Willites was the star batter with two hits one a two bagger and the other for three bases. The score:

Lace Mills 0 0 1 0 3-4
Willite 1 0 2 0 0-3

2 base hits—F. Weaver, R. Norton 3 base hits—F. Weaver. Sacrifice hit Leudke, hits off Bruck 3. Bedford 6. Atkins 0. Stolen bases, F. Weaver, Atkins, McGraw (2). Schultis, J. Jordan, Brown. Left on bases, Willite 5; Lace Mills 2; Base on balls off Bruck, 5; Bedford, 1; Atkins, 1. Struck out by Bruck, 4; Bedford, 3; Atkins, 1. 1st base on errors—Willite 2, Lace Mills 0. LIKE IN "FLANDERS FIELDS"

Poppies Bloom in Kearney, N. J., Soil That Was Transported From Beautiful France.

"In Flanders fields the poppies grow," but not only in Flanders fields. Over in the Federal Shipbuilding company's yards in Kearney, N. J., French and Belgian poppies bloom with the same brave colors they showed on the battlefields overseas. How did they get there? Well, that's a long story.

Remember when our troop ships were speeding over the waters guarded by swift destroyers? And when other vessels were making the trip carrying food and other supplies to the brave armies overseas? Well, no troops were homeward bound in those days, but the vessels did not come back with empty holds.

Instead as ballast they used soil from Belgium and France.

What to do with this ballast when the ships touched New York was a problem until officials of the shipbuilding concern in Kearney asked for the soil for filling in purposes. As a result more than 100 barge loads were transferred from transports docked in Hoboken and carried to the yards, where the soil was used to fill a sort of trench caused by the removal of a pipe line. And there the poppies have been blooming for more than a year undisturbed, except now and then by a passing ship worker. They have flourished in their transplanted home perhaps because they are used to trench life. Intermixed with the blood-red poppies are French daisies, their petals blunter than the American variety, and with several blossoms growing from each stem. Probably these newcomers would still be unnoticed if the other day some one hadn't stopped the young son of the shipyard's chief of police to ask where he picked his scarlet n. navy.

"These?" remarked the boy, holding up flowers out for observation. "Oh, these are Belgian poppies that grow wild down in my father's yard. Want to get some? I'll show you."

Royalty in a Freight Yard. Lieutenant Commander Hugo W. Koehler in the World's Work says:

Our nearest neighbors in a splendid out-freight yard where we took up quarters in Novorossiysk were the former president of the Vladikavkaz railroad, the best system in Russia, who with his children and grandchildren, occupied one small coach. The Grand Duchess Marie Pavlovna with members of her former suite and their families, also had a single coach, while her son, the Grand Duke Andrei, with his son of oddly indefinite parentage and said son's mother, a famous ballerina in her day, likewise lived for months in a tiny railroad coach on the opposite side of our mudhole. The grand duchess was a charming lady, nor did the terror of her situation and the utter squalor of our surroundings take one whit from her delightful sense of humor and her quality of une grande dame.

Famous Grove Disappearing. Mexican children gathering firewood are slowly wiping out a clump of cottonwood trees northwest of Juarez, Mex., across the Rio Grande from El Paso, Tex., which has been known as "Peace Grove" because it was there that Gen. Francisco I. Madero agreed to a series of armistices which preceded the end of his revolution. Approximately 25 trees marked the historical spot in 1911. Today, it is said, less than half this number survive the raids of the children sent to search for fuel.

The grove won its name in 1911 when Madero led his troops against the Juarez federal garrison, which remained loyal to President Porfirio Diaz. The commander of the garrison and Madero arranged several armistices under the trees of the grove.

Oil as Leprosy Cure. So successful has Dr. P. Hooper been in the Fiji Islands in the treatment of leprosy with chaulmoogra that he reports to the Journal of Medical Medicine and Hygiene that in the years 1918 and 1919 patients were discharged on whom one returned, and he six more apparently cured for discharge.

SHERIFF CHAFIN HAS BIG FORCE

Logan Authorities In Readiness To Repel Band of 5,000 Union Miners
With Force in Mountain Passes—Airplane Keeps Sheriff Informed.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Logan, W. Va., Aug. 26.—With a fleet of more than a hundred automobiles held in readiness to reinforce the small band of deputy sheriffs who are guarding the mountain passes through which an army of 5,000 union miners proposes to strike at the non-union fields of this district, Logan, this morning has completed its plans to block the invasion.

The automobiles were requisitioned by Sheriff Don Chafin late yesterday after an aviator had circled over the mountains through which the men are reported to be passing. The planes were in the air several hours, then scurried back to Sheriff Chafin to make a report. Immediately upon hearing this report the sheriff called for volunteers and within an hour more than one hundred machines and drivers had been secured. Sheriff Chafin early this morning returned from an inspection of the lines of defense in the hills, but upon his return maintained his non-committal attitude.

"We have no grievance against these marchers," a deputy sheriff said. "We want the world to know that our sole endeavor in this affair is to protect our homes and property. There is no industrial dispute in Logan, nor has there been in the 17 years of mine operations here. We are not to be cowed by threats and we are ready to fight to the last ditch to prevent any armed band from crossing our borders."

Logan, under the threat of being the scene of a general engagement between the two forces, was calm. Women and children had filled the afternoon train to Huntington yesterday afternoon in an effort to remove them from the danger zone and the exodus continued this morning, but the men for the most part remained behind to lead support to the sheriff.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Aug. 26.—The stock market showed a strong tone at the beginning of business today. Studebaker rose 1 1/2 to 68 1/2 and Kelly-Springfield moved up 1 1/2 to 34 1/2. Northern Pacific made a gain of over one point to 71 1/2 and fractional gains were shown in the other railroad shares. United States Steel was 1/4 higher at 73 1/2 and Baldwin Locomotive rose 1/4 to 71 1/2. Mexican Petroleum moved up one point to 91 and General Asphalt rose 1/4 to 41 1/2. American International showed an improvement of 1/4 at 22 1/2 and Crucible Steel was 1/4 higher at 51.

The market movements in the first hour contrasted with the recent character of the trading in that there were practically uniform advances in place. The advances were distributed throughout the list, taking in some issues which have not been dealt in for some time. The industrials showed gains of one to 2 1/2 points and the railroad issues gained almost as much.

A few weak features reappeared in mid-afternoon following the covering of shorts. United States Rubber first preferred on a few transactions fell to 75, compared with 82, the last preceding sale on Thursday. The common lost 3 points to 41. Baldwin Locomotive scored an extreme rise of 1 1/2 to 73 1/2 and Republic Steel rose nearly 2 points to 45 1/2. Mexican Petroleum, after showing a gain of 3/4, to 93 1/2, receded to 92 1/2. The market closed strong, government bonds unchanged, railway and other bonds steady.

Accepted Definitions.
The bureau of standards says that the momentum of a moving body is defined as the product of the mass of the body times the velocity. An everyday definition of mass is the quantity of matter in the body, whereas the weight of the body is the force exerted on the body by the earth. The mass of a body is unchangeable, whereas the weight is zero both at the center of the earth and at great distances from the earth.

J. A. STEWART, 99, IS GOING STRONG

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Aug. 26.—Wall Street's
"grand old man," John A. Stewart, is ninety-nine years old today, and he has lived long enough, he believes, to be quite sure the world is improving,
and that the old times are not the best after all, as many old timers claim.

The "Grand Old Man" is still strong enough to walk briskly without the use of a cane and he reads
newspapers without eyeglasses. Furthermore, he is an active chairman of the board of trustees of the United States Trust Company.

"I haven't used tobacco in any form since I was twenty years old,
and I believe that is one of the reasons I have kept my health," he said
today. He registers but one complaint on modern times, and that is against the tendency of the young women of today to smoke.

HIGH FALLS.

The Rev. H. W. Noble of Hoboken,
N. J., who preached in the Reformed Church the past Sunday, was entertained at the home of Harvey Dewitt of Alligerville on Sunday and Monday. Tuesday he visited this place and was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Church. He made a number of calls in the village.
On Wednesday morning Mr. and Mrs.
Oscar Church took him home in their car.

Many of the summer guests have already left for their homes.
There are guests at the home of George Contant.

Miss Belle Van Wagenen called at the home of Miss Mary C. Van Wa-genen on Monday afternoon.

E. D. Korrighat spent a few days the past week with friends in Kingston.

A number from this place attended the Ellenville fair.

Albert D. Deyo of Kingston spent the past week end at the home of his aunt, Miss Mary C. Van Wagenen.
On Sunday evening he gave an interesting talk at the C. E. meeting.

The summer guests at Walnut Grove Cottage returned to the city the past week.

There will be no preaching service in the Reformed Church on Sunday, August 28. Sunday school will be held at the usual hour.

There will be a chicken supper in the Reformed Church on Tuesday evening of the coming week, August 30. Every one is cordially invited to attend, enjoy a fine supper and spend a social hour.

Mrs. Lewis of Kingston was a recent guest of Mrs. Charles and her sister, Miss Deputy.

Mrs. D. Murphy and daughter, Vera, who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Chip Quick, have returned to their home in New Jersey.

Miss Hattie Snyder and nephew, Clifford Monroe, of Newburgh, are guests at the home of their father, Thomas Snyder.

The Misses Alice and Charlotte
Wager visited town on Monday.

The members of the old 120th regiment held their annual reunion at Kingston Point on Monday of this week. Dorr Monroe, one of the members, who is now spending some time in this place, attended the reunion.

ATTEMPT TO LIFT WRECK OF ZR-2

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Hull, England, Aug. 26—A hundred-ton floating admiralty crane arrived here today to attempt to lift the wrecked body of the dirigible ZR-2 at low tide. The wreckage was so deeply embedded in the mud and sand at the bottom of the Humber river that little hope was entertained that any of it could be salvaged. No more bodies have been recovered, and hope was fast dwindling this afternoon that any of the 38 missing bodies would ever be found.

HOW TO MAKE REAL PEACH JELLY

Ripe Peach Flavor
Easily Preserved
By a Jam Maker.

The finest peach jelly you ever tasted—check full of the natural flavor and color—can be made at home within a few minutes after the peaches are sliced or crushed. I like the "Certo Process" as I can use ripe peaches and because it takes only one minute's boiling, thus saving flavor and color; it never fails, and is cheaper because I get two-thirds more jelly from the same amount of peaches.

The Certo Process for making Peach Jelly is very simple. Put cooked fruit in jelly bag and squeeze out as much juice as possible. Carefully measure 6½ leveled cups (¾ lb.) sugar and then 1 cup (¼ lb.) juice from cooked fruit into large saucepan (5 or 6 qt. size), stir and bring to a boil. At once add 1 bottle of (seal) Certo, stirring constantly. Continue to stir and bring again to a hard boil over the hottest fire for one-half minute, stirring constantly. Remove from fire, let stand one minute, skin and pour quickly into glasses. Makes 16 half-pint glasses of jelly.

By this short "Certo Process" you save all the color and flavor that is boiled away by the old method. Time and worry are also saved and you have 5 pounds of jelly from 2 pounds of peaches as compared to 3 pounds of jelly by the old method.

The above recipe and many others for making delicious jellies and jams by the "Certo Process" is found in the Certo book of recipes, a copy of which will be given to you by your grocer or druggist when you get Certo. Extra copies will be sent free if you write to the Peetin Sales Co., Inc., 260 East Ave., Rochester, N. Y.

Use Certo this year in making all your jams and jellies. It saves time, worry and boiling. The Certo Process never fails and saves money, because you make two-thirds more jam from the same amount of fruit.

IMPORTANT—Certo is "Mother Nature's jelly maker"—the pure concentrated jelly making principle of fruit contains no gelatin, chemical or preservative, and because of the fact that it saves time, money, color and flavor and never fails, has revolutionized the art of jam and jelly making. Every housewife should use it.

If your grocer or druggist does not have Certo, call Miss Jones, phone 1575, to learn where you can obtain it.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

Clarence E. Bloodgood of Catskill, formerly a member of the state senate, died in his home in that village, Thursday night, at the age of 72. Mr. Bloodgood was a member of the New York State Bar Association and one of the organizers of the Cooperative and the Commercial Fire Insurance companies. He was elected senator in 1891 and served for two years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Josephine Cole Bloodgood.

Edward Harold Goodsell of No. 29 Grove street died Thursday afternoon after a long illness, aged 34 years. Mr. Goodsell was a son of the late former Street Superintendent John L. Goodsell and Mary E. Goodsell and is survived by his wife and one daughter, Jeanette Elizabeth, a brother, Detective Homer Goodsell of the West Shore railroad, and three sisters, Miss Irene Goodsell, Mrs. Alfred W. Tongue and Mrs. Frank McCausland, all of this city. The funeral services will be held from the late residence on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment in the family plot in Montross cemetery. Mr. Goodsell was held in high esteem by all who knew him, and had been a resident of the Poncehockie section for many years. He was long an active member of Cordis Hose Company.

The funeral of Richard J. Lane was held from his late home on the Plank road, West Hurley, this morning at 9 o'clock, and from St. John's Church, Stony Hollow, at 9:30, where a requiem Mass was offered up for the repose of his soul. The Rev. Peter W. Spellman, pastor of the church, officiated, and the Rev. George Vaeth, pastor of the church at Sawkill, was seated in the chapel. At the close of the service, Mrs. Raymond Garrison of this city very feelingly sang "There's a Beautiful Land on High." There was a large attendance. The body was laid at rest in the family plot in St. Mary's Cemetery, this city. The Rev. George Vaeth accompanying the remains to their resting place. The bearers were Edward Cunningham, William Healey, Leo Moran, John McManus, Edward Ryan and George Goedel. The flowers were profuse and handsome.

Truly "Devil's Sonata."

Probably the most remarkable of the stories of dream-inspiration is that of Tartini's world-famous "Devil's Sonata." "One night I dreamt that I met the devil," said the composer. "I handed my violin to him and asked him to play a solo on it. He took the instrument and began to play music of such wonderful, unearthly beauty that I was entranced. When the music ceased I awoke, jumped out of bed, and reproduced it as accurately as I could."

Toys.

There are possibilities in clay as a toy for your child. Let him model. It may develop a talent, it will increase his imaginative genius and amuse him.

Wives and Children of Presidents.

Of the wives of Presidents of the United States six bore no children—Mrs. Washington, Mrs. Madison, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Polk, the second Mrs. Fillmore, and the present Mrs. Wilson. The largest families were those of President and Mrs. William Henry Harrison, who had ten children, and President and Mrs. Hayes, who had eight. President John Tyler had 14 children, seven by each of his two wives.

That's Going Too Far.

A woman may get up at a mother's convention and declare that she has the best husband on earth, but she never goes so far as to say she expects to meet him in heaven.—Chicago Daily News.

Books in Our Time.

Of books in our time the variety is so voluminous, and they follow so from the press, that one must swiftly reader to acquaint himself with their titles, and wise to discern what are worth reading. It is a book that is good from title page to the end.—A. Bronson Alcott.

Peanut Known as Goober Pea.

The territory of Tidewater Virginia grows more peanuts than any part of the United States. To territory may be added parts of Carolina, also great peanut-growers. Some places in the Carolinas the peanut is referred to as "the gober pea."

KIWANISTO GO TO POUGHKEEPSIE

Tuesday, August 30, will be a big day for Dutchess county, with the gathering of the Kiwanis Club members at Poughkeepsie and Washington Hollow, 12 miles east of there. Poughkeepsie will treat it as a sort of holiday and most business will be suspended and the stores closed.

The Kingston Kiwanis Club will be represented by a large delegation of members which will meet at the Y. M. C. A. at 10 o'clock that afternoon with their wives or other womenfolk to make the trip by auto. It is expected that all start together and keep that way on the road as it may be no easy job to find each other in the great crowds that are expected. This down-river visit will take the place of the regular Thursday meeting and those wishing to go who have not already done so should inform Chairman Suttill, in charge of arrangements, before Saturday morning to enable him to secure reservations for them at the clubhouse at Washington Hollow. The chairman has not indicated whether he will furnish Pack-ards for all, but says he will be able to find autos for those who need him in time.

Baseball gossip goes on apace complicated by inability to get a playing field and a worthy opponent in juxtaposition, as it were. The latest prediction is that Rotary will be played at Forsyth Park the first week in September and Poughkeepsie Kiwanis team on September 13.

Roy Suttill reported at Thursday's meeting of the club, for his committee, that a silk Kiwanis banner which he was instructed to negotiate for, would cost a good deal more than a lady's silk dress, or two of them for that matter, and wouldn't contain any more material, so he was instructed to look around at the wool-hunting ones and see what he could do. If there are any enterprising dressmakers who could make one a la Betsy Ross after a pattern it would seem a good chance to bid on this job.

"SOME motorists have a lot of trouble with carbon. Believe me, there would be less knocking on hills, fewer scratched cylinder walls, and less spark plug fouling, if everybody would use Socony Gasoline."

What is a Human Soul?

Is it an intangible something that cannot be defined, weighed or estimated?

Have the lower animals souls? If so, do they differ from the souls of human beings?

Is the human soul immortal—death-proof—or can it be obliterated, become extinct?

If you cannot satisfactorily answer these queries, come and hear the solution given by the one and only true source of information, the Bible, at

COLONIALS READY FOR SATURDAY

Can the Poughkeepsie Regulars do what such teams as the Dunns, Bonackers, Atlantic City and Hoboken have failed to do—defeat the Colonials on their own stamping grounds? Saturday's game between the two teams will answer this question, and the result will be watched with considerable interest by fans all along the Hudson.

That the Regulars are one of the fastest semi-pro teams in this section of the state is conceded by all who have seen them in action. They are a fast fielding and heavy hitting bunch, snappy and aggressive, and in Beecher and Stanfield have two pitchers of more than ordinary ability. Their 8 to 2 victory over the Newburgh Independents last Sunday stamps them as dangerous contenders for the valley championship.

In Captain Schrick's team, however, Kingstonians believe they have the real class of the league. Having met and defeated practically every first-class team in this vicinity, the Colonials are confident of sending Wetmore's crew back to Poughkeepsie with the short end of the score.

The Bridge City team will not be without rooters at the game. It is estimated five hundred fans will accompany the club to Kingston, and if the weather is fair the attendance at the game should touch the high mark for the season.

The pitching selections have not yet been announced, but it is probable that "Bud" Culliton will do the mound work for the local team. Wetmore may call on either Beecher, the former Saugerties hurler, or Stanfield, who pitched his team to victory last Sunday.

Peerless Win.

The Peerless A. C. defeated the Montrose nine in a game of baseball on the Smith avenue grounds on Thursday evening by a score of 5 to 3. The Montrose nine led the score until the last of the fourth inning, it being 3 to 2. Charles Murphy was walked, stole second and third and was singled home by Jack Benkert. Then came a timely homer by Pete Bruck which scored Jack and sent the Montrose nine home with a 5 to 3 defeat. The batteries for the Peerless were Pete Bruck and Neal Bruck, and for the Montrose were Watson Bailey and Hutton. The game was umpired by Wilfred Scheffel.

Regulars to Pitch Beecher.

That Elmer Beecher will have a chance to prove to the fans of Kingston and Saugerties he can pitch as good, if not better, for his home town than he did at Saugerties this season, was assured Thursday when Manager Fred Wetmore announced in Poughkeepsie that he would send Beecher to check the winning streak of the Colonials, Saturday. Stanfield will also be ready to be rushed to the mound in case anything happens to Beecher, but nothing is expected and Beecher claims with his fast spitball he will be able to bench most of the Colonials.

HIT WHILE PRAYING

So Morowitz Sues Cantor For $10,000.

Charging that Harris Cantor came into the Tabernacle of the Children of Israel on South Bridge street Poughkeepsie and assaulted him while he was in the act of making his prayers, Louis Morowitz has brought an action against Cantor for $10,000 for alleged injuries, both physical and mental. Raymond E. Aldrich is attorney for Morowitz. Although Mr. Morowitz states he does not know the cause of this alleged attack, he believes it came from an order he issued, as the chairman of the committee, appointed to look after the Tabernacle grounds, in which he ordered one of the sons of Mr. Cantor from the property.

THE OFFICE CAT

By Justus

A Parody.

(To the tune of "Old Black Joe.")
Gone are the days when the boys
Were young and gay;
Gone are the bars, where they gave
Free lunch away;
Gone are the songs that we sang
Those days of yore;
No more we hear their voices calling
"Just one more."
I'm drinking, I'm drinking, at the soda fountain now.
It seems that things are going to the
bow-wow-wow.
Why do I weep when I see a grocery store?
Why do I sigh when I'm getting less
for more?
Grieving for food at the prices long
ago,
It seems my pocketbook keeps saying
"So long, Bo."
I'm blowin' my dough in, with the
prices staying high;
Like Bonnie Annie Laurie, lie me
down and die.
Kindly omit flowers.

A horse in the road is not half as dangerous as a pony of hootch in the tummy.

Auto-Intoxication.

"What was the excitement down
the street?"
"Oh, a man in a reverie ran into a woman in a tantrum."
"Were the machines badly damaged?"

"Many a fish would starve if it wasn't for the 'fish' who tried to catch them.

They used to carry corn to mill by
the bushel, these nights they bring it
to town by the gallon.

When Henry Ford feels the need of a vacation, he goes tramping. It is restful, to be sure, after riding in a silver.

Distracted Mother—"Oh, dear,
what shall I do with baby?"
Bright Little Sister—"Didn't we get a book of instruction with it?"

Vacationist—"You know all these things growing in the ground look very much alike to me. How do you know which ones are fresh?"

Summer Resort Episode.
I kissed the hem of her garment,
I was foolish then.
Another fellow came along
And kissed her coat of tan.

The price of "saying it with flowers" often nips that little speech in
the bud.

However high a bird may soar, it seeks its food on earth.

The American dollar is a bear-cat away from home. Down in Brazil, it has leaped lightly aloft to three times
its value, while at home it is as far below par as a novice at golf.

France is having a hard time keeping ahead of America. She is kicking about no-piece bathing suits.

The man who invests the best he has in his life's work usually gets good dividends in the end.

Dr. Harry Forbes says it is dangerous to have more than seven tea-
spoonfuls of water on the brain.
We always suspected that stuff was dangerous.

Vacationing At Home.

The wise woman doesn't wait for vacation to bring cool, joyous atmosphere in the summer days.
She vacations at home, and takes
her family with her.

The first thing she does is to get a little breakfast set, and make a summer corner, in which to eat. It may be in the garden or on the porch, or under the windows in the dining room.

But during the summer she doesn't bother with the big table
and all paraphernalia that goes with it. Instead, she makes every meal a summer festival with cool
drinks and cool salads and above
all, a cool, charming place to eat.

And what fun the family get out of it! They all delight in doing their share in making a stay-at-home vacation. And after all, it is not so much what one does, as it is the change it makes in the routine
of the days.

So these daily painted little breakfast sets are to be seen everywhere,
perhaps down under the trees, by
the lake, or in a shady corner of the porch. They have come to stay.

And they are a year-round convenience, too, for now-a-days, we women are using them every day in the year, for breakfast, at lunch, and often for other meals, when they wish to take life more easily.

Vacationing at home means living out doors as much as possible. That means making the porch the most attractive place in the whole house.
And how easily may this be done.

By means of the new, comfortable chairs, in wicker, or wood, or old bickery, that are so inexpensive, you can have a year-round vacation.
A few years ago the porch was made the meeting place of all the uncomfortable chairs in the house.
Now it is bright with children, and comfortable with big chairs. And the long summer evenings are now with the talk and laughter of the family and their friends.

And now is the time to buy. For

So They Can Build On Main Street Extension.

George S. Darling who intends breaking ground for an up-to-date bungalow which he intends to have erected on Main street extension just as soon as the question of the grading and laying of sewers in that street is settled, has secured signers from owners of more than the necessary front feet of property signifying that they are willing to pay the legal amount which the proposed improvements will cost. The petitions have been placed in the hands of Mayor Canfield for presentation to the board of public works and several of the lot owners hope that the Main street extension will be graded and sewer built before winter sets in so that they can start work on proposed bungalows and dwellings on the street. Application will be made to the board of water commissioners for the extension of the water main through the street.

WALKED 25,000 MILES.

Barone Photographs Things Worth While While Enroute.

Marcus J. Barone of Orange, N. J., dressed in khaki uniform stopped over in Kingston Thursday, on a thousand mile walking trip, being on his way to the eastern states. In 1912 he started on a 26,000 mile walk to be covered within five years but the world war stopped his trip as he served as a soldier while it was going on. He has walked 25,000 miles he says, and the object of his trip is to take photographs of scenes enroute and make a study of nature. When he started on May 1, 1912, he had $1.50 capital and during his walk of 25,000 miles he took in $4,000 from sales of pictures and had $2 in cash when he returned to Orange, N. J. When he started in 1912 he had a dog with him that was his companion all the time, but the dog died a month after he got home. During his walking trip Barone, who is a bright young man, says he walked in Cuba, Mexico and Europe. He left Orange on Wednesday last and on his trip up the river walked over Bear Mountain, Storm King Mountain and Hook Mountain. From Kingston he went to Catskill and his route will be through the Berkshires to Boston and will walk through New Hampshire and Vermont. Besides a large camera Barone also carries around his neck a roll of blankets on which he sleeps at night out of doors.

Portland's Famous Houses.

In Portland, Me., near the waterfront, there stands, side by side, two weather-beaten, neglected houses. One of them is the house in which Longfellow was born; in the other, Thomas B. Reed, "the czar of the house," first saw the light. But as far as Portland is concerned they are just plain houses.

HOW TO REDUCE VARICOSE VEINS

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and bunches. S-GERMAN TREATY SIGNED

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Berlin, Aug. 26.—Leading German newspapers today expressed satisfaction over the signing of the German-American peace treaty, but the people were warned not to expect too much from it. The public was told that the separate treaty with America will not change the conditions that have already been imposed upon this country by the treaty of Versailles.

Germany is expected to ratify the treaty without any delay and German officials believe that the American government will not give prolonged debate to the document when it is taken up. The lack of ceremony attending the signing of the German-American treaty was in deep contrast with the pomp and ostentation that accompanied the signing of the treaty of Versailles.

SOVIET SUSPICION OF RELIEF GROWS

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Berlin, Aug. 26.—Panic of soviet officials at Moscow that the force of Bolshevism plan to use Russian relief as a means of stirring up counter revolution are on the increase, according to information from Moscow today.

There is much agitation against American relief, said a Moscow dispatch to Achutur Abadbiat. The dispatch quoted as follows from an article written by Karl Radok for Pravda, a Communist newspaper: "If we permit foreign bourgeois relief organizations to retain control of the distribution of food it is equivalent to permitting international counter-revolutionary organizations to organize a political revolution on soviet soil."

Analysis of the Kiss.
In analyzing the psychophysiology of the kiss, Professor Maecius, says: "The kiss is the first animal manifestation of love. The passionate look is nothing but desire. The handshake is full of reserve, of constraint, or full of hope. The kiss is simply another and more exquisite manifestation of the sense of touch than the handshake. And it is from the sense of touch that all other senses are derived."

VALUABLE HINTS FOR HOT WEATHER

Why Our Bodies Swell During High Temperature.

BULK COUNTS IN OUR FOOD

Rolling Up the Shirt Sleeves in Theory and Practice—Medical Man Gives Some Little Known Facts Which May Be of Value to the Average Person Who Must Endure Hot Weather—The Active Function and the Digestive Function.

Some little known facts, the possession of which is of value to the average person who must endure hot weather, are called to public attention by the medical correspondent of The London Times. For instance it is not known by the majority of people that the body tends to swell in hot weather, just as the skin does. A knowledge of this fact is of importance to those who intend to wear belts or tight clothing when it is inordinately warm, according to the physician. For, forewarned with this knowledge, they can avoid these restrictions.

The physician says that two functions of the body are always to be discerned and differentiated, the active function and the digestive function. The active man is using his brain and his muscles; the digestive man is using his stomach, liver and their internal organs. This is simple enough. What is less simple, or at least less easy for the layman to grasp, is that the nervous system plays a deciding part in both states.

Ask the average man, the doctor suggests, why, at certain moments of his life, he has squared his shoulders and doubled his size. He will answer: "To fight, of course." And the emphasis on the words "of course" will often reveal his idea that the question is as unnecessary as the reply is obvious. But, says the physician, there is nothing obvious about it, as is seen when we reflect that when the shoulders are squared and fists doubled the heart beats quicker and the bowels are emptied of blood. A vast and sudden change has swept over every cell in the body in response to what? To the sight of an enemy. That is to say to an impression or sensation reaching the eyes—or it may be the ears.

The fact emerges—it is sensation, stimulation, events or conditions in the outside world which decide that a particular man shall be active or digestive.

Facing the Drought.

The physician takes for an example the stimulus of cold. On a cold day the skin receives a kind of bombardment of what he calls "small calls to action," which act on the nerves of this structure and whip them to action. As a result, the small blood vessels of the body are closed, digestive processes are stayed, and the muscles are filled with blood. Thus in cold weather we feel active and are filled with energy.

Quickly moving air naturally cools a man faster than slowly moving air; and damp air is less cooling than dry because there is less evaporation.

Consequently, says the physician, on a hot day with still air, the amount of "cold stimuli" reaching a man's skin is greatly reduced. There are no calls for action of this sort, and the blood vessels tend to remain dilated and open. The blood stays in the body and the body is swollen.

But, we are reminded by the writer, at any time the arrival of food into the stomach is a call for blood for that organ, just as the approach of an enemy is a call for blood to brain and muscles. So in hot weather when food is eaten the already swollen body tends to swell more.

In patients with digestive troubles and heart troubles, the physician tells us, the result of this swelling in hot weather, after a full meal, may be most unpleasant. They feel their "breath short-circuited," they seem to have an oppression on their chests, they feel giddy. In some cases they may faint.

Stripped for Action.

It is obvious then that during hot weather the middle-aged man whose nervous system, thanks to his sedentary life, is less well-balanced than it used to be must act in the light of the knowledge available. In the first place, he must do all that he can to give his skin a chance. He must play for stimulation, so to speak, in order to counteract the tendency of his blood to gather in his body.

He should take off his coat when he gets to his office and roll up his shirt-sleeves. He should open all the windows, but screen out the sunlight. The resulting currents of air playing on his bare arms will give him a really valuable degree of stimulation. A wet towel with which the bare arms may be rubbed occasionally is not a bad idea.

Secondly, he must not eat heavily during the day. It is best that counts most, for the greater the bulk the more the tendency to draw blood into the body.

Finally, exercise should be postponed till evening. It should not be abandoned on any account, for the secret of good health is in constant exercise.

Make It Productive.

EXHIBITION AT THE BIG PICNIC

Variety of Farm Equipment and Automobiles to be a Feature—The Cider Mill to be Erected on Monday.

A final meeting of the committee of arrangements for the Farm and Home Bureau and Chamber of Commerce picnic to be held in Forest Park next Wednesday, was held Thursday evening and was not very well attended. President A. E. Jensen was detained on his farm giving final treatment to the trees he had inoculated with rye serum. Millard H. Davis was unable to leave home on account of one of his hot dogs having developed symptoms of epidemic which he feared would spread to the rest of the herd and William Warren was so worried over the prospecting that the Chamber of Commerce baseball game was threatening to give the Farm Bureau nine that he was unable to attend.

Chairman Hathaway reported having secured a regular whale of a cider mill from a gentleman named Bunn, and now only lacked power and an experienced miller.

After a spirited debate on the relative advantages of permitting customers to drink from the spout or furnishing them with cups, it was decided to use cups, as it would be too difficult to choke drinkers off from a spout when they had their money's worth.

Roy M. Sutcliffe of the publicity committee reported that his committee had publicized to a satisfactory extent.

Postmaster DeWitt reported the program completed, although the tug-of-war would have to be omitted because no team could be found brave enough to tug against the huskies of the Department of Public Works.

Mr. Hathaway reported a great demand for exhibition privileges, eight spaces having already been let as follows: Sutcliffe, Inc., Packard truck; Van Motor Car Co., trucks, two spaces; Canfield Supply Co., farm machinery, two spaces; Gregory & Co., kitchen range and washing machine; Brown & Dressel, pipeless heaters; Sturgesant Garage, truck.

It was decided to let spaces for exhibiting pleasure cars, as well as for other goods. Application may be made in person or by telephone to the Chamber of Commerce.

The cider mill will be erected Monday so that Mr. Hathaway and his force of millers may practice on it Tuesday and have everything working smoothly Wednesday. Other equipment such as tents, stands for the sale of food and drink, etc. will also be erected Monday and Tuesday under the supervision of the committee.

A CLOSE GAME.

Lace Mills, Nose Out, Willites Through Errors in Fifth.

By winning Thursday night's game against the Willites the Lace Mills gained a notch in their race for third place in the Industrial League. The Lace Mills have two more games to play. If they win both they are secure in third place, if they break even they will be tied with the Peter Schuyler team.

The contest at the Athletic Field last night proved to be a more interesting affair than was expected. It was a full inning of good ball. The Willites took the lead in the first inning and maintained it until the last half of the last inning, when two wild pitches and McGrane's hit threw the game to the Lace Mills.

Bedford pitched three innings for the Lace Mills but was not in usual form and was succeeded by Atkins. Bedford's three innings yielded Bruke's men six hits. But he was supported by a particularly strong outfield, notably J. Jordan, in center and McGrane, in right field. F. Weaver of the Willites was the star batter with two hits one a two banger and the other for three bases. The score: Lace Mills 0 0 1 0 3—4. Willite 1 0 2 0 0—3.

2 base hits—F. Weaver, R. Norton 3 base hits—F. Weaver. Sacrifice hit, Leudke. Hits off Bruke 3. Bedford 6. Atkins 0. Stolen bases, F. Weaver, Atkins, McGrane (2). Schultis, J. Jordan, Brown. Left on bases, Willite 5; Lace Mills 2; Base on balls off Bruke, 5; Bedford, 1; Atkins, 1. Struck out by Bruke, 4; Bedford, 3; Atkins, 1. 1st base on errors—Willite 2, Lace Mills 0. LIKE IN "FLANDERS FIELDS"

Poppies Bloom in Kearney, N. J. In Soil That Was Transported From Battlefield France.

"In Flanders fields the poppies grow," but not only in Flanders fields. Over in the Federal Shipbuilding company's yards in Kearney, N. J., French and Belgian poppies bloom with the same brave colors they showed on the battlefields overseas. How did they get there? Well, that's a long story.

Remember when our troop ships were speeding over the waters guarded by swift destroyers? And when other vessels were making the trip carrying food and other supplies to the brave armies overseas? Well, no troops were bound in those days, but the vessels did not come back with empty holds.

Landed as ballast they used soil from Belgium and France.

What to do with this ballast when the ships touched New York was a problem until officials of the shipbuilding company in Kearney asked for the soil for filling in gardens. As a result, more than 100 large loads were transported from transients docked in Hoboken and carried to the yards, where the soil was used to fill a sort of trench caused by the removal of a pipe line. And there the poppies have been blooming for more than a year undisturbed, except now and then by a passing ship worker. They have flourished in their transplanted home perhaps because they are used to French life. Interned with the blood-red poppies are French daisies, their petals blunder than the American variety, and with several blossoms growing from each stem. Probably these newcomers would still be unnoticed if the other day some one hadn't stopped the young son of the shipyard's chief of police to ask where he picked his scarlet "poppies."

"Those?" remarked the boy, holding a flower out for observation. "Oh, those are Belgian poppies that grew wild down in my father's garden. Want to get some? I'll show you."

Regatta in a Freight Yard.

Lieutenant Commander Hugo W. Koster in the World's Work says: "Our nearest neighbors in a splendid out-of-door yard where we took up quarters in November were the Junior Federalists, which remained loyal to President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The commander of the regatta and Koster arranged several events under the trees of the grove."

son's mother, a famous ballerina in her day, likewise lived for months in a tiny railroad coach on the opposite side of our middle. The grand duchess was a charming lady, nor did the terror of her situation and the utter squallor of our surroundings take one whit from her delightful sense of humor and her quality of use grade dame.

Famous Grove Disappearing.

Menon children gathering firewood are slowly wiping out a clump of out-of-door trees southwest of Jarrow, Mex., across the Rio Grande from El Paso, Tex., which has been known as "Tree Grove" because it was there that Gen. Francisco I. Madero arrived to a series of assassinations which proved the end of his revolution. Approval, nearly 25 years marked the historical spot in 1911. Today, it is said, less than half this number survive the rule of the children sent to gather for fuel. The grove was the home in 1911 when Madero led his troops against the Juarez federal army, which remained loyal to President Porfirio Diaz. The commander of the grove and Madero arranged several events under the trees of the grove.

On an Locomotive Car.

So successful has Dr. P. Hooper been in the Fiji Islands in the treatment of leprosy with chaulmoogra that he reports to the Journal of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene (London) that in the years 1918 and 1919 20 patients were discharged on parole, whom one returned, and he saw six more apparently cured and sent for discharge.

Doctor Hooper believes that cases of skin leprosy and some of the muscular form can be cured by the muscular injections of chaulmoogra oil, cure of future dependent on how early the treatment begins.

Without Light for a Week.

A London surgeon was reported for a week recently during a strike among the employees of the electric light and power plant. On the first day he made out that one of his patients, which was supplied with artificial light for the operation of an eye, was in a condition in which a feeble light was being raised in artificial light.

Question That Arises.

There is no question in the answer of the least common or price for a good and a perfect for James Macdonald.

Problem in Anatomy.

The doctor seems to be really in the least common or price for a good and a perfect for James Macdonald.

SOCIETY NOTES

Twelfth Wedding Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. Vincent A. Gorman were delightfully surprised by a small party of friends Thursday evening who gathered to help them celebrate their twelfth wedding anniversary. They had intended having a quiet little celebration of their own but abandoned their plans when their friends arrived. In a mysterious way a well prepared dinner made its appearance and the recipients of the surprise were tendered hearty congratulations throughout the meal. The floral decorations were of palms, sunflowers and roses, and the table in addition was ornamented with a large wedding cake and a beautiful floral wedding bell.

Thursday evening Miss Clara Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rice, was tendered a birthday party at the home of her parents, No. 148 West Pierpont street, and a most delightful time was enjoyed by those present. The evening was spent with games and music and at a late hour dainty refreshments were served. Miss Rice was the recipient of a number of artistic and valuable gifts. Among those present were the Misses Helen Miers, Emily Nelson, Miriam Halloran, Agnes Fox, Carolyn Hatch and Madelyn Hafer, and the Messrs. Gus Nelson, Adolph Munson, Frank Struble, Harry Hutten and Frank Hafer.

SHERIFF CHAPIN HAS BIG FORCE

Logan Authorities in Readiness To Repel Band of 5,000 Union Miners With Force in Mountain Passes—Airplane Corps Sheriff Informed.
By Telegram to The Freeman.
Logan, W. Va., Aug. 26.—With a fleet of more than a hundred automobiles held in readiness to reinforce the small band of deputy sheriffs who are guarding the mountain passes through which an army of 5,000 union miners proposes to strike at the non-union fields of this district, Logan, this morning has completed its plans to block the invasion.

The automobiles were requisitioned by Sheriff Don Chapin late yesterday after an aviator had circled over the mountains through which the men are reported to be passing. The plane was in the air several hours, then scurried back to Sheriff Chapin to make a report. Immediately upon hearing this report the sheriff called for volunteers and within an hour more than one hundred machines and drivers had been secured. Sheriff Chapin early this morning returned from an inspection of the lines of defense in the hills, but upon his return maintained his non-committal attitude.

"We have no grievance against these marchers," a deputy sheriff said. "We want the world to know that our sole endeavor in this affair is to protect our homes and property. There is no industrial dispute in Logan, nor has there been in the 17 years of mine operations here. We are not to be cowed by threats and we are ready to fight to the last ditch to prevent any armed band from crossing our borders."

Logan, under the threat of being the scene of a general "engagement" between the two forces, was calm. Women and children had filled the afternoon train to Huntington yesterday afternoon in an effort to remove them from the danger zone and the exodus continued this morning, but the men for the most part remained behind to lend support to the sheriff.

Villa Demands Pay for Men.
By Telegram to The Freeman.
Mexico City, Aug. 26.—Francisco Villa, former revolutionary and bandit leader, is demanding funds of the Mexican government with which to pay his former followers, according to a report in circulation today. Villa interpreted his terms of surrender as meaning that the government would furnish him with funds to keep up the pay of his men. General Martinez, commander of the federal troops in the state of Durango, is said to have advised immediate payment to Villa.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Aug. 26.—The stock market showed a strong tone at the beginning of business today. Studebaker rose 1 1/4 to 68 1/4 and Kelly-Springfield moved up 1 1/2 to 34 1/2. Northern Pacific made a gain of over one point to 71 1/2 and fractional gains were shown in the other railroad shares. United States Steel was 1/4 higher at 73 1/4 and Baldwin Locomotive rose 1/4 to 71 1/2. Mexican Petroleum moved up one point to 31 and General Asphalt rose 1/4 to 41 1/4. American International showed an improvement of 1/4 at 22 1/2 and Crucible Steel was 1/4 higher at 51.

The market movements in the first hour contrasted with the recent character of the trading in that there were practically uniform advances in prices. The advances were distributed throughout the list, taking in some issues which have not been dealt in for some time. The industrials showed gains of one to 2 1/2 points and the railroad issues gained almost as much.

A few weak features reappeared in mid-afternoon following the covering of shorts. United States Rubber fell to 70, compared with 82, the last preceding sale on Thursday. The common lost 3 points to 41. Baldwin Locomotive scored an extreme rise of 1 1/2 to 73 1/2 and Republic Steel rose nearly 2 points to 45 1/4. Mexican Petroleum, after showing a gain of 3 1/4 to 93 1/4, receded to 92 1/2.

The market closed strong; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds steady.

ATTEMPT TO LIFT WRECK OF ZR-2

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Hull, England, Aug. 26.—A hundred-ton floating admiralty crane arrived here today to attempt to lift the wrecked body of the dirigible ZR-2 at low tide. The wreckage was so deeply embedded in the mud and sand at the bottom of the Humber river that little hope was entertained that any of it could be salvaged. No more bodies have been recovered, and hope was fast dwindling this afternoon that any of the 38 missing bodies would ever be found.

HOW TO MAKE REAL PEACH JELLY

Ripe Peach Flavor
Easily Preserved
By a Jam Maker.

The finest peach jelly you ever tasted—check full of the natural flavor and color—can be made at home within a few minutes after the peaches are sliced and crushed. I like the "Certo Process" as I can use ripe peaches and because it takes only one minute's boiling, thus saving fuel and color. It never fails, and is cheaper because I get two-thirds more jelly from the same amount of peaches. The Certo process for making peach jelly is very simple. The cooked fruit in jelly base and squeeze out as much juice as possible. Carefully measure ½ level cup (¾ lbs.) sugar and then 3 cups (½ lbs.) juice from cooked fruit into large saucepan (6 or 8 qt. size), stir and bring to a boil. At once add 1 bottle of (sweet cup) Certo, stirring constantly. Continue to stir and bring again to a hard boil over the hottest fire for one-half minute, stirring constantly. Remove from fire, let stand one minute, skin and pour quickly into glasses. Makes 29 half-pint glasses of jelly.

By this short "Certo Process" you save all the color and flavor that is boiled away by the old method. Time and money are also saved and you have 5 pounds of 3-ly from 2 pounds of peaches as compared to 2 pounds of jelly by the old method. Peaches and many others for making delicious jellies and jams by the "Certo Process" is found in the Certo book of recipes. The Certo book will be given to you by your grocer or druggist when you get Certo. Extra copies will be sent free if you write to the Peetin Sales Co., Inc., 280 East Ave., Rochester, N. Y.

Use Certo this year in making all your jams and jellies. It saves time, worry and boiling. The "Certo Process" never fails and saves money, because you make two-thirds more jam from the same amount of fruit.

IMPORTANT—Certo is "mother nature's jelly maker"—the pure concentrated jelly making principle of fruit contains no gelatin, chemical or preservative; and because of the fact that it saves time, money, color and flavor and never fails, has revolutionized the art of jam and jelly making. Every housewife should use it.

If your grocer or druggist does not have Certo, call Miss Jones, phone 1575, to learn where you can obtain it.

Truly "Devil's Sonata."

Probably the most remarkable of the stories of dream-inspiration is that of Tartini's world-famous "Devil's Sonata." "One night I dreamt that I met the devil," said the composer. "I handed my violin to him and asked him to play a solo on it. He took the instrument and began to play music of such wonderful, unearthly beauty that I was entranced. When the music ceased I awoke, jumped out of bed, and reproduced it as accurately as I could."

Toys.

There are possibilities in clay as a toy for your child. Let him model. It may develop a talent, it will increase his origination genius and amuse him.

Wives and Children of Presidents.

Of the wives of Presidents of the United States six bore no children—Mrs. Washington, Mrs. Madison, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Polk, the second Mrs. Fillmore, and the present Mrs. Wilson. The largest families were those of President and Mrs. William Henry Harrison, who had ten children; and President and Mrs. Hayes, who had eight. President John Tyler had 14 children, seven by each of his two wives.

Books in Our Time.

Of books in our time the variety is so voluminous, and they follow so fast from the press, that one must be a swift reader to acquaint himself even with their titles, and wise to discern what are worth reading. It is a wise book that is good from title page to the end.—A. Bronson Alcott.

Peanut Known as Gopher Pea.

The territory of Tidewater Virginia grows more peanuts than any other part of the United States. To that territory may be added parts of the Carolinas, also great peanut-growing states. Some places in the Carolinas the peanut is referred to as "the gopher pea."

That's Going Too Far.

A woman may get up at a mother's convention and declare that she has the best husband on earth, but she never goes so far as to say she expects to meet him in heaven.—Chicago Daily News.

COLONIALS READY FOR SATURDAY

Can the Poughkeepsie Regulars do what such teams as the Dumas, Bonackers, Atlantic City and Hoboken have failed to do—defeat the Colonials on their own stamping grounds? Saturday's game between the two teams will answer this question, and the result will be watched with considerable interest by fans all along the Hudson.

That the Regulars are one of the fastest semi-pro teams in this section of the state is conceded by all who have seen them in action. They are a fast fielding and heavy hitting bunch, snappy and aggressive, and in Beecher and Stanfield have two pitchers of more than ordinary ability. Their 8 to 2 victory over the Newburgh Independents last Sunday stamps them as dangerous contenders for the valley championship.

In Captain Schirick's team, however, Kingstonians believe they have the real class of the league. Having met and defeated practically every first-class team in this vicinity, the Colonials are confident of sending Wetmore's crew back to Poughkeepsie with the short end of the score. The Bridge City team will not be without rooters at the game. It is estimated five hundred fans will accompany the club to Kingston, and if the weather is fair the attendance at the game should touch the high mark for the season.

The pitching selections have not yet been announced, but it is probable that "Bud" Callout will do the mound work for the local team. Wetmore may call on either Beecher, the former Saugerties hurler, or Stanfield, who pitched his team to victory last Sunday.

Peerless Win.

The Peerless A. C. defeated the Montrose nine in a game of baseball on the Smith avenue grounds on Thursday evening, by a score of 5 to 3. The Montrose nine led the score until the last of the fourth inning, it being 3 to 2. Charles Murphy was walked, stole second and third and was singled home by Jack Benkert. Then came a timely homer by Pete Bruck which scored Jack and sent the Montrose nine home with a 5 to 3 defeat. The batteries for the Peerless were Pete Bruck and Neal Bruck, and for the Montrose nine, Watson Bailey and Hutton. The game was umpired by Wilfred Scheffel.

Regulars to Pitch Beecher.

That Elmer Beecher will have a chance to prove to the fans of Kingston and Saugerties he can pitch as good, if not better, for his home town team than he did at Saugerties this season, was assured Thursday when Manager Fred Wetmore announced in Poughkeepsie that he would send Beecher to check the winning streak of the Colonials, Saturday. Stanfield will also be ready to be rushed to the mound in case anything happens to Beecher, but nothing is expected and Beecher claims with his last spatball he will be able to bench most of the Colonials.

HIT WHILE PRAYING
So Morowitz Sues Cantor For $10,000.

Charging that Harris Cantor came into the Tabernacle of the Children of Israel on South Bridge street Poughkeepsie and assaulted him while he was in the act of making his prayers, Louis Morowitz has brought an action against Cantor for $10,000 for alleged injuries, both physical and mental. Raymond E. Aldrich is attorney for Morowitz. Although Mr. Morowitz states he does not know the cause of this alleged attack, he believes it came from an order he issued, as the chairman of the committee, appointed to look after the Tabernacle grounds, in which he ordered one of the sons of Mr. Cantor from the property.
